PLAYING WITH PASSION AND A LOVE OF THE GAME: PUSHING THE BALL AND AGGRESSIVELY ATTACKING THE BASKET; FINDING THE OPEN TEAMMATE; CHANGING DEFENSE AND DISRUPTING THE RHYTHM OF THE OPPONENTS; SINKING THE OPEN 3-POINTER; AND HELPING OUT TEAMMATES

When you add those components together, they add up to Iowa basketball, a style of basketball that is all-out fun for 40 minutes, a style of play that is exciting to watch, but more importantly, a style of basketball that players love to play.

As the Iowa Hawkeyes head into the 2015-16 season, the sixth year under coach Fran McCaffery and his coaching staff, Iowa basketball is in the midst of a new era that features exciting and fun basketball that players enjoy playing and fans enjoying watching.

"Hawkeye fans and our players will enjoy our style of basketball. We are going to compete and play the game the right way. We want to play an up-tempo style, push the ball, attack the basket and catch the defense off balance. We want to score in the 80s and 90s. Defensively, we want to change defenses and disrupt rhythm. We want to give Hawkeye fans an exciting style of basketball to watch. Our players are going to have fun and enjoy what they do on the floor."

"We have a solid foundation and a tremendous environment to work with as we look to build on our 24 NCAA Tournament appearances and two Big Ten Tournament championships. We embrace the Hawkeye tradition and look forward to the challenges ahead."

FRAN MCCAFFERY
Head Coach
University of Iowa

McCaffery took over the Iowa basketball program in 2010 after rebuilding three basketball programs (Lehigh, UNC-Greensboro and Siena) as a head coach. McCaffery became just the 12th Division I coach to take four different programs (Iowa, Siena, UNC Greensboro and Lehigh) to the NCAA Tournament. He is the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues.

McCaffery has one of the most experienced coaching staffs in the nation at the University of Iowa. Kirk Speraw, Sherman Dillard, Andrew Francis, and Billy Taylor have over seven decades of combined coaching experience.

In five seasons as the head coach at Siena, McCaffery led his team to an average of better than 22 victories per year, including back-to-back 27-win campaigns in 2009 and 2010. He led the Saints to three straight regular season championships and NCAA Tournament appearances (2008-10).

Eleven of McCaffery's 19 teams boasted third place or better finishes in their respective conference, including capturing league tournament titles five times. McCaffery coached teams have competed in seven NCAA Tournaments and three NIT's.

Consider these facts about Fran McCaffery and his coaching career:

He was named MAAC Coach of the Year in 2009 and District I Coach of the Year in 2010 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches

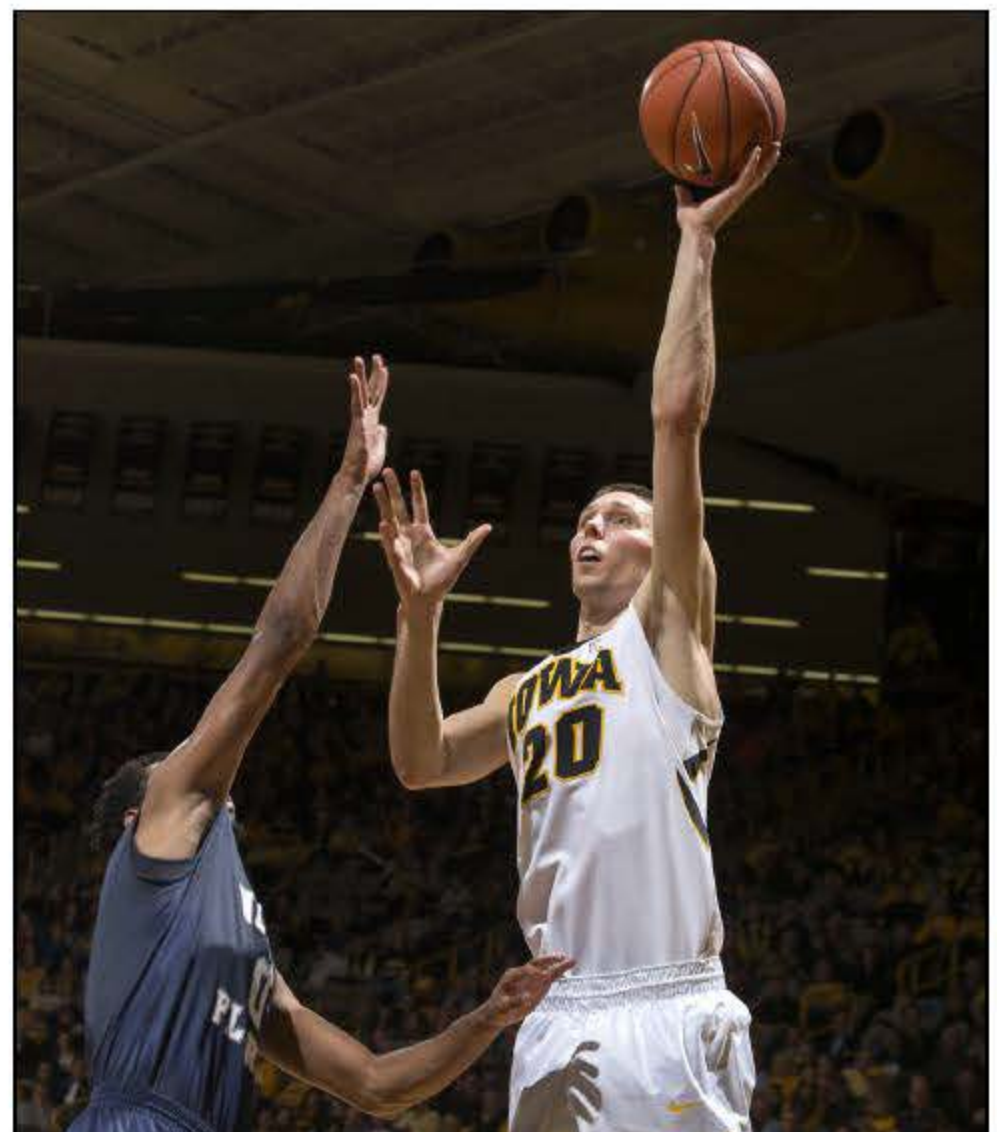

McCaffery has posted nine 20-win seasons as a head coach, including seven of the last nine years and the last three seasons.

Iowa tied for third place in the challenging Big Ten in 2015, giving McCaffery 15 upper division finishes, including three straight, in 19 years as a head coach.

The Hawkeyes were ranked in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls 16 consecutive weeks in 2014, climbing as high as 10th in both polls on Jan. 13.

Led Iowa to 25 victories in 2013, equaling its second-highest total in school history, while also winning a school-record 18 home games. The Hawkeyes won 22 in 2015 en route to advancing to the third round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 19 years as a head coach, has led his teams to five conference tournament championships and 10 postseason appearances.

Jarrod Uthoff is one of five seniors on this year's Iowa basketball team.

2015-16THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
ONE OF THE NATION'S VERY BEST

Iowa City, Iowa. It is the home for one of the nation's leading public universities, the University of Iowa.

It's also the home of one of the nation's most successful college basketball programs, the Iowa Hawkeyes.

24 NCAA Tournament appearances • 3 Final Fours • 8 Sweet Sixteens • 4 Elite Eights • 8 Big Ten Championships

HERE IS A SAMPLING OF IOWA'S MOST RECENT SUCCESS:

Iowa basketball posted seven straight winning seasons between 2000-07, including 25 victories in 2006, second most in school history. Along with winning the 2006 Big Ten Conference Tournament, Iowa placed second during the regular season, just one game out of first place.

The Hawkeyes won all 17 home games in 2006, posting the first-ever perfect record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa has posted a 117-43 record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena over the past nine seasons, including a 45-10 mark the last three years. Iowa won a school-record 18 home games in 2013.

Iowa advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2014 (first round) and 2015 (third round), and reached the NIT in (Round of 16) and 2013 (runner-up).

Iowa has appeared in the NCAA Tournament 21 times over the past 37 years. The Hawkeyes have made three appearances in the NCAA Final Four and have advanced to the Sweet 16 three times since 1987.

The seven winningest seasons in Iowa basketball history, 30 wins in 1987, 25 wins in 2013 and 2006, 24 wins in 1988 and 23 wins in 1989, 1993, 1996 and 2001, are an indication of the past successes of Iowa basketball. Iowa has posted 20 or more wins in 11 of the past 20 seasons, including the last three.

Leading the Hawkeye program is head coach Fran McCaffery, who guided Iowa to the postseason the last four years with two NCAA Tournament berths and two trips to the NIT. McCaffery led three former teams to conference championships and five NCAA Tournaments. He was tabbed the 2009 MAAC Coach of the year and 2010 NABC District I Coach of the Year. In 19 years as a college head coach, McCaffery's teams have averaged 18 wins per year. While at Siena, the Saints averaged over 22 wins during his tenure.

IOWA BASKETBALL: GREAT SUCCESS AND GREAT TRADITION

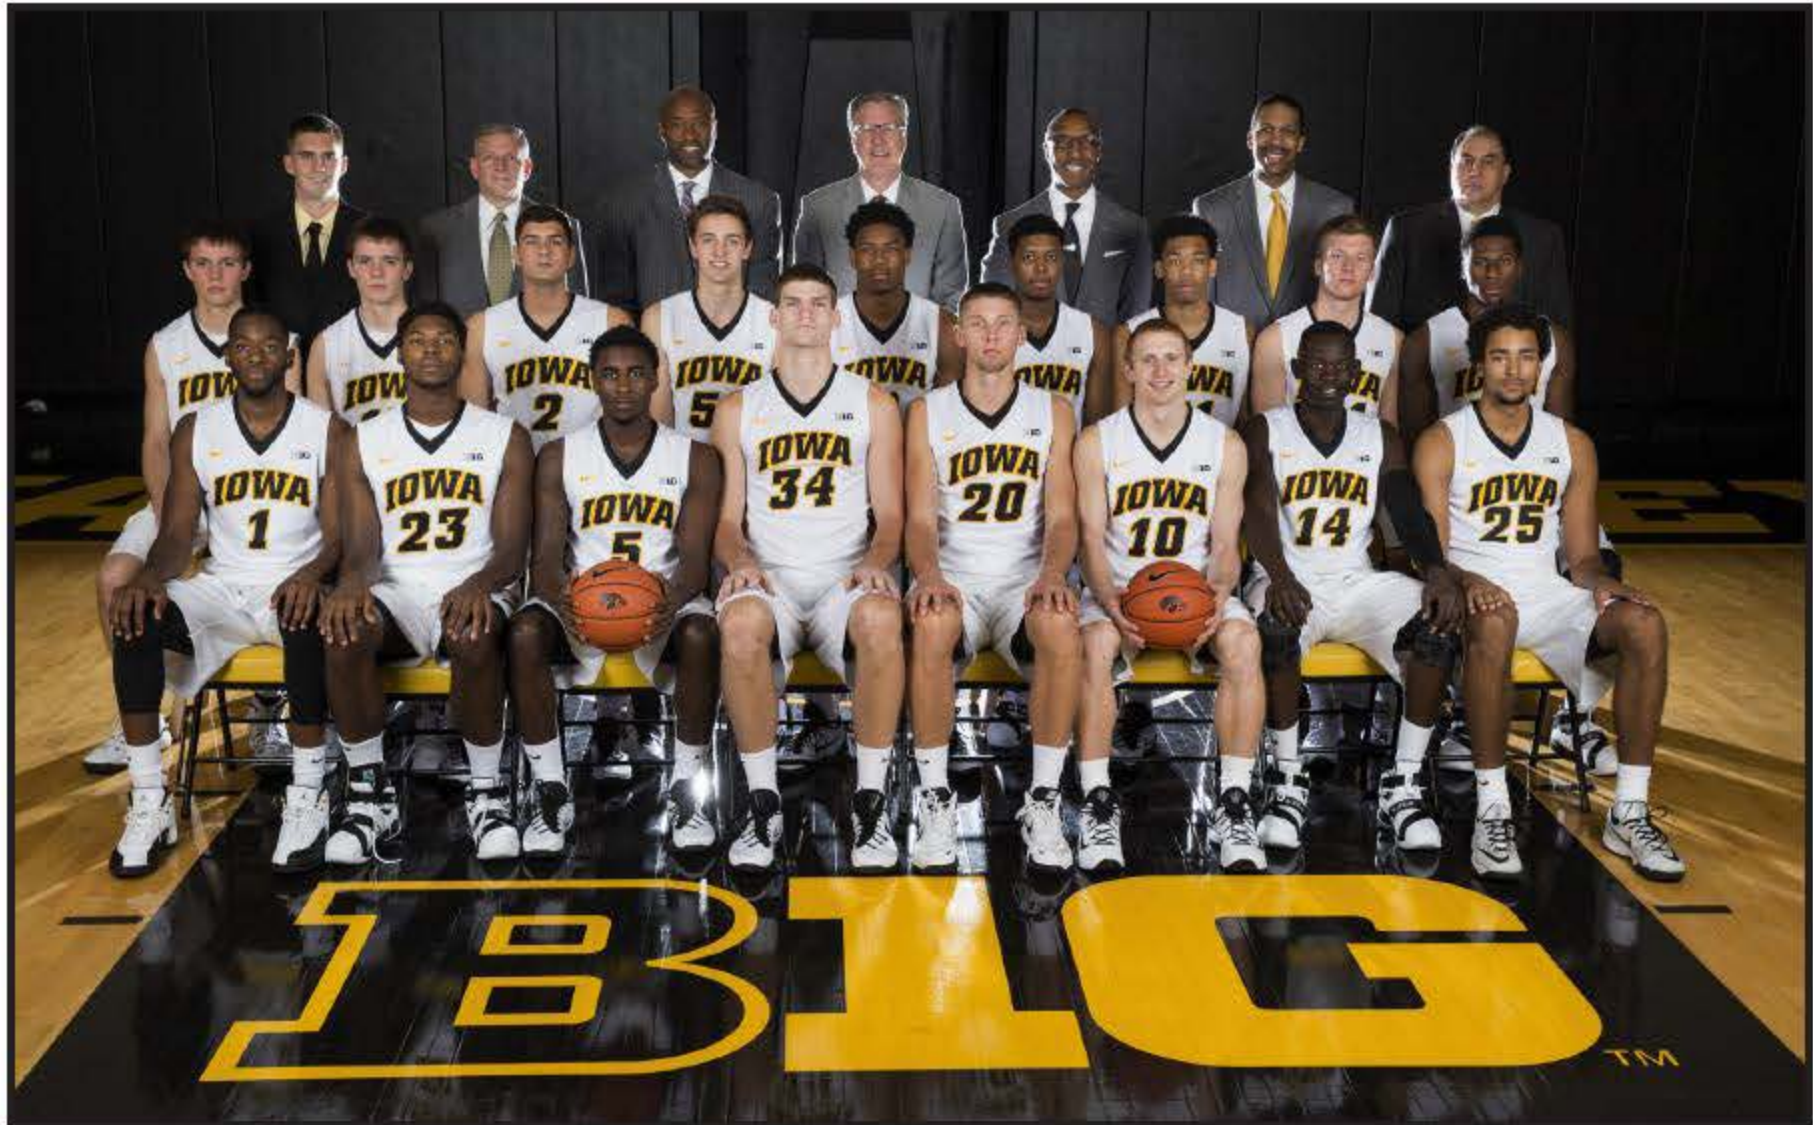

During the 2001-02 season, the University of Iowa celebrated 100 Years of Basketball. Iowa's basketball history includes 77 winning seasons, including 26 years in which the Hawkeyes have won 20 or more games.

ESPN released its 2009 college basketball encyclopedia and inside it included its ESPN/Sagarin all-time rankings. The University of Iowa's success on the court garnered the program a ranking of No. 10 in the country!

Iowa basketball teams have advanced to the NCAA Tournament 24 times, advancing to the NCAA Final Four in 1955, 1956 and 1980. In fact, Iowa is one of just 40 Division I programs to advance to the NCAA Tournament on more than 20 occasions. In addition, Iowa has made seven appearances in the NIT postseason tournament.

The start of the Iowa basketball program can be traced back to January 18, 1896. On that date, Iowa City was the site of the first college basketball game played with five players on a side. The historic event took place in Close Hall on the University of Iowa campus. In that first game, the University of Chicago defeated Iowa, 15-12, with neither team using any substitutes.

From that first game in 1896, the Iowa basketball program has been recognized as one of the best in the nation. Street & Smith's magazine recently selected its "100 Greatest College Basketball Programs of All Time". In its special publication, the magazine recognized the Iowa program as No. 40 among over 300 Division I programs.

Fran McCaffery Q&A on the 2015-16 Season

Do you feel like you have a squad that will stretch the defense more with your perimeter shooting depth?

We have incredible perimeter depth in terms of guys who can make shots. I believe we will be able to stretch the floor in a big way this year. It starts with Peter Jok and Jarrod Uthoff, and I believe you'll see a much-improved Mike Gesell shooting the basketball this year. Brady Ellingson, Andrew Fleming, Isaiah Moss, and Dale Jones are all knockdown 3-point shooters. Anthony Clemmons doesn't shoot as many 3's, but when he does, he shoots at a high percentage.

You've been blessed with great senior leadership every year you've been at Iowa. Do you feel like the team is in good hands on and off the court this year with this year's senior group?

We have unbelievable leadership with this group. It starts with Clemmons, Gesell, and Woodbury; they came in together and started as freshmen. Uthoff falls into that senior class with the kind of success he has had and the kind of person he is. All those guys have character and want to win; they want to work hard and compete. They're all intelligent basketball players so that experience coupled with the basketball intellect will help our young guys get ready. The impressive thing about the young guys is that they have come in ready to compete for playing time. They don't want to come in and wait their turn; they want to play. That creates an atmosphere of competition and helps everyone get better every day.

How will this year's team be different than last year's squad?

We won't be as big, but we can leave Woodbury on the floor for a longer period of time. It will be great for him and us. I believe our 3-point shooting and athleticism will be better, and our team overall will be deeper.

Eight newcomers this year... have you ever coached a team with this many new guys? What is the challenge in having a new group that size?

It's rare to have this many newcomers and still have four starters returning -- five if you include Clemmons, who has started a number of games throughout his career. In that respect, it will be a fun team to coach because the older guys can bring these kids along and hopefully get them to where they need to be quicker.

How much has Brady Ellingson grown as a player since recovering from his injury?

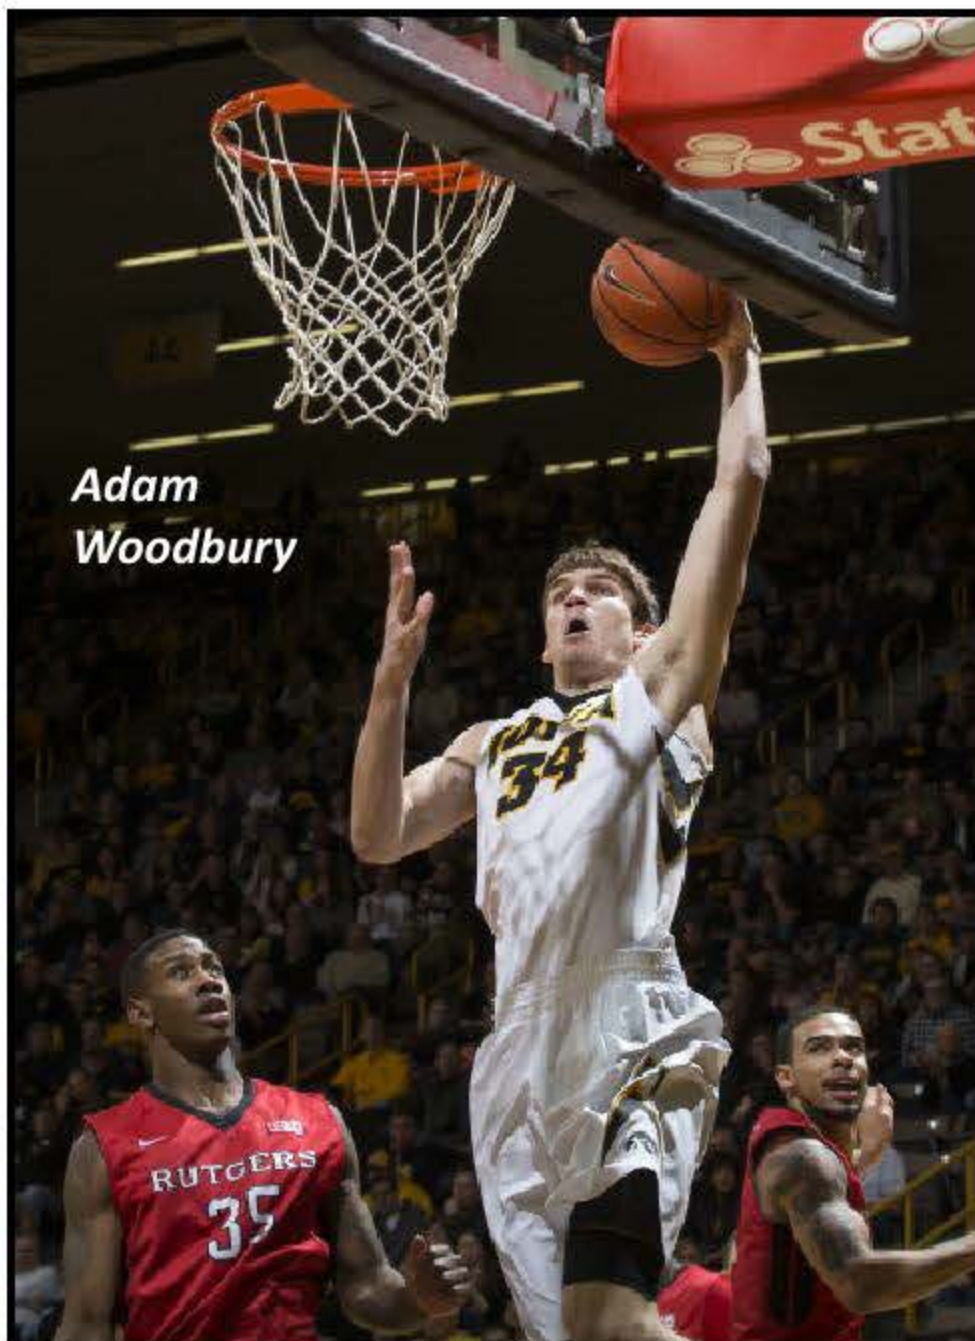

Brady's been playing well and shooting the ball well. He's playing with the experience level you would expect from a guy who has been around for a year and playing with great confidence. I believe he relaxed once he knew he was red-shirting last year. He became an integral part of our scout team while going on an accelerated strength and conditioning program. He's playing like veteran and still has four years of eligibility. He's efficient, can feed the post, moves without the ball, is a crafty rebounder, even though he's not huge, and can shoot it well.

What position do you envision Dale Jones playing this season?

Dale could play the three or be a perimeter four. His strength is that he can make five or six 3-pointers in a game, but he can post-up and score inside. Dale's a guy who can get double figure rebounds in a game as well.

How do you size up the front court?

There's a lot of different ways we can go. Our front court starts with Woodbury and Uthoff; two starters from last year. After that there is a number of different ways we could go. Dom Uhl could take that next step. Dale Jones, Ahmad Wagner, and Nicholas Baer will all be in the mix once the season starts.

Adam
Woodbury

How do you plan on using Uthoff this year? Do you feel like he is one of the most versatile players in the country?

We envision playing Jarrod at both the 3 and 4 spots this season because he's a good defensive player. He can play both positions. We put him on a lot of threes last year because he was a hard guy to score over. He has a unique ability to block your shot as you're shooting it. He waits for you to let it go and then he blocks it. I feel like Jarrod is one of the most versatile players in the country. He can shoot, drive, post-up, and defend bigger and smaller guys at 6-foot-9. He's a team player. He's playing with great confidence right now and that's what we need him to continue to do.

In what ways will the Nike Academy help Jarrod Uthoff?

That camp was the elite of the elite. You're there with 20 of the best college basketball players in the country and you're also there with guys like LeBron James and Kevin Durant... you're treated at another level and you see another level. You realize how close you are to being an NBA player. I'm thrilled he had the opportunity to go and I think he performed well.

How important is the growth and development of Dom Uhl this year?

Dom's up to about 215 pounds and looks good physically. He is so much more confident and sure of himself right now. I think going overseas this summer and playing against that level of competition with the East Coast All-Star team is a phenomenal experience. I'm happy for him, and he's excited about that.

You have three veteran guards returning. How valuable is it to have experienced guards in the Big Ten?

It is critical. You have a couple exceptions, but by-in-large, it's the veteran guards in this league that have their teams in the top half of the toughest conference in the country. Peter, Mike, and Anthony give you great confidence that our team can be good.

Gesell said he is working on finishing at the rim this off-season. Is that something you would like him to do more often, attack the basket more this year?

You look back at last year where he had that elbow injury that precluded him from being much of a threat from 3. He's more than a capable 3-point shooter, which will give him more opportunities to drive, shoot his pull-up, and drive and finish. What you saw is a guy who continues to develop confidence. Mike has improved every year, physically he's in great shape, he has become more confident, and I think he's an underrated defender. You feel good when the game starts with the ball in his hands.

Mike
Gesell

How great of an ambassador is Gesell for the program excelling on the court and in the classroom?

Here's a guy who has one of the top GPA's in his class and is an academic All-American. He has handled every situation with class, whether it's with the media, people who come up to him asking for a photo with their son... he's one of my favorite people I have ever coached. If you're a fan of the program, you root for him because you respect everything he does in terms of handling his business.

Having the dynamic of Gesell and Clemmons feeding off each other in practice; how much has that made each of them better players?

Since they came in they have become good friends and have been in competition in many ways. They both play the point. The beautiful thing is we've been able to play them together and sometimes we've been at our best when they've played together. Sometimes we are best when one is coming for the other. The truth is that they can both make plays and make shots, and they both defend. They do it with little fanfare. They do their job, focus, and work hard. It's a pleasure as a coach when you have two guys who conduct themselves the way do because it relaxes everybody around them knowing they're there.

Anthony Clemmons

What's the next step you expect Woodbury to take this year?

You'll see a player who is playing with a lot of confidence. The key for us is to keep him out of foul trouble so he can play 34-35 minutes. He's working hard this summer and is in great shape. I'm excited for him. As you see his numbers go up, he'll play with more confidence. I'm expecting a big year out of him.

In what ways do you envision the newcomers in the back-court to contribute with a number of veterans ahead of them right now?

Fleming is an attack player. He can shoot, drive, or pass the ball. He plays with a tremendous amount of confidence and versatility. Williams is long, and can play the point or the two. He's talented and can pass it. Hutton is 6-foot-5 with a 6-foot-11 wing span. He's a phenomenal athlete. Moss is a talented offensive player with athletic ability. He can run, play above the rim, and shoot 3's. When you look at the group, you have a lot of options and versatility.

What do you like about Wagner's skillset?

He plays a lot bigger than he is. He has a lot of three-man skills, but is probably more of an under-sized four. He can dribble, play in a fast-break style, or in a half-court style. He had a tremendous high school coach in Travis Trice, he won a state championship and is used to winning. He's a winner, is smart, and intelligent with great athletic ability who is going to impact our team, but will also keep improving.

What excites you about this team?

The challenge of bringing the youth and experience together is what excites me and my staff. At the same time knowing that we have good people in the program that want to be good, want to share the ball, and we're not afraid to go on the road and compete. I believe this year's schedule we be our most challenging since I've been at Iowa.

What's the key to being successful on the road?

It starts with experienced guard play, but it also has a lot to do with your ability to rebound the basketball. You want to run, limit the opposition to one possession, rebound and go. The times when we've had trouble is when we have given up high shooting percentages because we didn't rebound and gave the opponent second and third-shot opportunities. We have more speed this year, but you still have to get the ball. We lost our top two rebounders from last year (Aaron White and Gabe Olaseni) so others will need to step up and take care of that component.

Bruce Harreld, a former Harvard Business School faculty member and corporate executive who helped save a foundering IBM in the 1990s, is the 21st president of the University of Iowa.

The Board of Regents, State of Iowa, announced Harreld, 64, as its unanimous selection Sept. 3 to replace Sally Mason, who retired Aug. 1, after serving eight years as president.

"I am truly happy to be here," Harreld says. "It's an honor. It is watershed moment for a great institution. I am going to listen, and I am going to learn."

The announcement concludes a search that began in February, only weeks after Mason announced her retirement. The Board of Regents appointed a 21-member search and screen committee to work in conjunction with professional search consultant Parker Executive Search.

Board of Regents President Bruce Rastetter says "we really believe we have a great university but we want to see that opportunity to be larger and greater, and Harreld is someone who has provided that type of leadership to organizations."

Harreld held a variety of corporate executive positions with Kraft Foods, IBM, and Boston Market restaurants before coming to the Harvard Business School in 2008. There, he held dual appointments in the entrepreneurial and strategy units and focused on teaching strategy. His research focus was encouraging innovation, changing corporate cultures, and managing people.

With just over 31,000 students, the University of Iowa is one of the nation's top public research universities, known around the world for its balanced commitment to the arts, sciences, and humanities. UI is home to one of the nation's largest academic medical centers and the world-renowned Iowa Writers' Workshop.

PRIOR POSITIONS: Faculty member, Harvard Business School (2008–2014); vice president, strategy, IBM (1995–2008); president, Boston Market Co. (1993–1995); adjunct professor, Northwestern University (1993–1994); senior vice president and division president, Kraft General Foods (1983–1993); consultant, manager, vice president, Boston Consulting Group (1975–1983)

EDUCATION: Bachelor of Engineering, Purdue University, 1972; Master of Business Administration, Harvard University, 1975

PERSONAL: Wife, Mary Gillilan Harreld, attorney; four adult children, six grandchildren

Gary Barta enters his 10th year as the director of athletics at the University of Iowa riding momentum of record-setting performances in every leg of the three-legged stool by which the Iowa Hawkeyes approach each day: Win. Graduate. Do it Right.

A big picture view of the UI's success in the "Win" category is provided by a review of the Hawkeyes' performance in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition. The Hawkeyes completed the 2014-15 season with 535.50 points – the most points the UI has ever accumulated in the history of the competition. That point total resulted in a 44th place finish, the third-best recorded by the UI and its best since the 2004-05 athletics year.

UI student-athletes continued to attack their work in the classroom – the "Graduate" leg of the Hawkeyes' three-legged stool – with the same intensity as they pursue their opponents in competition: Iowa established a record for its NCAA Graduation Success Rate in 2014-15 while again achieving a perfect score in the NCAA's Annual Progress Report.

The "Do it Right" column was filled with successes as well. Under Barta's leadership, the Hawkeyes continued their significant service and contribution to the greater Iowa City area community, took a leadership position in matters related to student-athlete welfare, and remained among the handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully operate in the black while also maintaining its status as 100 percent self-supporting.

Iowa's success in competition was highlighted by another postseason appearance by the UI football program and deep postseason runs by the UI's wrestling, women's basketball, and men's gymnastics programs. The highlights include the following:

- The Iowa football team advanced to its 12th postseason bowl game under the leadership of Kirk Ferentz. Thirteen Hawkeyes were named All-Big Ten, including Brandon Scherff, who was named the Big Ten's Offensive Lineman of the Year, became Iowa's 22nd consensus All-American, and fourth Outland Trophy winner.
- Lisa Bluder's women's basketball team advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time under its longtime head coach during a brilliant 26-win season – a mark that included an 18-0 record in games played on Mediacom Court in Carver-Hawkeye Arena – and its highest national ranking (11th) since the 1995-96 season. Iowa is one of 10 teams nationally that has appeared in the last eight NCAA Tournaments. Four Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, seven earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition, two garnered Academic All-America honors, and senior consensus All-American Samantha Logic became the second player in program history to be drafted in the first round of the WNBA Draft (10th selection, Atlanta Dream) and was the 12th to be drafted overall.
- Tom Brands' Iowa wrestling squad finished second at this year's NCAA Tournament after sharing the Big Ten Conference tournament title and claiming another dual meet championship with a 9-0 record against conference opponents. The Hawkeyes had six wrestlers earn All-American status.
- Fran McCaffery's men's basketball team registered the program's first NCAA Tournament victory since 2001. The season also included a big road win at North Carolina during the nonconference portion of the schedule, in addition to a third-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. Three Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, including first-team selection Aaron White, who also became the second Hawkeye in two years to be selected in the annual NBA Draft.
- Rick Heller's baseball program burst onto the national stage when it raced to its first appearance in a top 25 since 1990 – the program was 20th in the final rankings, the first appearance in the final poll in school history. The Hawkeyes won 41 games – the second-most all-time – en route to the program's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 25 years. Six Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, two Hawkeyes earned three All-America honors, and five players were selected in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.
- Under first-year head coach Tyler Stith, sophomore Carson Schaaake became the third Big Ten individual champion in program history and the first since 1992. Stith guided Iowa to its seventh straight NCAA Tournament appearance where the Hawkeyes finished a single stroke shy of advancing to the national championship. Two Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors and three were named to the Division I PING All-Midwest Regional Team.

- Including Schaaake of the UI's men's golf team, Iowa crowned eight Big Ten champions during the 2014-15 year: Dominic Patrick and Matt Hagan (men's tennis, indoor doubles), Babatunde Amosu (track and field, indoor, triple jump), Becky Stoughton (swimming and diving, 1,650-yard freestyle), Aaron Mallett (track and field, outdoor 110-meter hurdles), Elexis Guster (track and field, outdoor, 400-meters), and Amosu (track and field, outdoor, triple jump).
- Larissa Libby's GymHawks used a season-high score at the 2015 Big Ten Conference Women's Gymnastics Championship to help secure the program's seventh NCAA Regional berth in the last eight seasons. The team's score of 196.500 is the highest achieved by Iowa in conference championship action since 2004, and its fifth place team result is the program's best finish since 2010. A school record four gymnasts were named to the Big Ten All-Championship Team, four earned Academic All-Big Ten distinction, and senior Sydney Hoerr was named second team All-Big Ten.

- JD Reive's UI men's gymnastics squad made its second appearance in the NCAA championship in the last three seasons a grand one by upsetting fifth-ranked Illinois en route to a sixth-place national finish. The Hawkeyes were paced by junior Jack Boyle, who earned All-America honors on still rings, and season-high performances on the high bar and floor exercise. Eight Hawkeyes were named Academic All-Big Ten, and junior Doug Sullivan earned second team All-Big Ten honors.

- Joey Woody's debut season as head coach of the UI's men's and women's track and field teams resulted in four Big Ten titles and 11 All-America honors.
- Paced by a Big Ten champion and bolstered by eight record-setting performances at their conference championship meets, Marc Long's men's and women's swimming and diving teams closed their season by scoring points at their respective national championships.

- The 2014-15 year also marked the second straight season the Iowa's women's soccer team advanced to the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament. The Hawkeyes finished with 14 wins in 2014, including seven in conference play, tying the most in a single season in program history.

Iowa's "Wins" also occurred at the turnstiles, where the UI continued to lead the nation in attendance for home events of the Hawkeye wrestling program and be one of only eight programs in the country to rank in the Top 25 in attendance for football, women's basketball, and men's basketball. The UI also experienced sharp increases in spectator interest in baseball and volleyball in 2014-15.

The 2014-15 year opened with affirmation of Iowa's long-time commitment to the "Graduate" leg of Iowa's three-legged stool and the student-athlete experience at the UI: In October, the NCAA reported that Iowa's student-athletes had set a record by posting a score of 89 percent "Graduation Success Rate" or "GSR." That mark was one point better than the previous year and seven points better than the national average.

The NCAA also noted the UI had posted a federal graduation rate of 78 percent, which was also a record and in addition was 12 points better than the national average and tops among the three State of Iowa Board of Regents' institutions.

Last May, the NCAA reported that all 24 of Iowa's sports programs were comfortably above Academic Progress Rate (APR) threshold. The NCAA also singled out the UI's volleyball, soccer, women's swimming and diving, and men's golf teams for APR scores that ranked in the top 10 percent of their peer group. Of those four, volleyball, women's swimming and diving, and men's golf registered perfect scores of 1,000.

The 2014-15 college basketball season ended not only with the UI being one of a handful of institutions nationally which had both of its program participate in their national championship, but also with the UI being the only school in the country with multiple academic All-Americans: Samantha Logic and Ally Disterhoft in women's basketball and Mike Gesell in men's basketball. The Hawkeyes also boasted an academic All-American in football (senior RB Mark Weisman), in addition to 153 academic All-Big Ten selections across its 24 sports programs.

"Doing it Right" for Barta and the more than 225 staff of the UI Athletics Department is a charge that encompasses a long and varied list of responsibilities, including maintaining the department's status as one of a handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully operates its sports programs and auxiliary enterprises in a fiscally responsible manner, and without any institutional or taxpayer financial support. The UI provides a superior experience for the more than 650 talented student-athletes who participate in the program annually, and the more than million friends and fans of the Hawkeyes and the UI who attend athletics events on the UI campus, while being responsible and productive citizens of the greater Iowa City and University of Iowa community.

In 2015-16, Barta will be responsible for an annual operating budget that will exceed $90 million, with 100 percent of the revenue side of that budget be generated by the UI Athletics Department. The majority of that revenue will come as a result of success in traditional revenue sources: Income as a result of membership in the Big Ten Conference (including television), sales of tickets to events on the UI campus, and donations to the National I-Club.

The latter has grown into a critical piece of the financial pie managed by Barta, as evidenced by back-to-back years of record-setting fundraising support exceeding $28 million annually. That philanthropic support has been critical to the a long list of athletics facilities that have either been built or renovated during Barta's first nine years on campus.

The list includes construction of the recently-completed $55 million home of Iowa's football program, the Stew and LeNore Hansen Football Performance Center, $47 million revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena, installation of a new videowall and video ribbon board at Kinnick Stadium, installation of a new video scoreboard and playing surface at Duane Banks Field, construction of a new indoor turf facility, renovation of the practice space inside the UI Fieldhouse used by the UI's women's and men's gymnastics teams, construction of the Hoak Family Golf Facility, turf replacement at Grant Field, the home of Iowa's nationally ranked field hockey program, and resurfacing of the Klotz Tennis Center, to name a few.

Iowa's contributions to the greater Iowa City community go far beyond the multi-million dollars of economic impact generated as a result of the staging of hundreds of regular season, postseason and special events annually. Barta and UI student-athletes, coaches, and staff are also active citizens, logging thousands of hours of community service and also spearheading efforts to support a wide variety of causes ranging from construction of the UI's new Children's Hospital to the UI's extremely successful Dance Marathon to Coaches vs. Cancer.

Iowa's annual "Day of Caring" serves as the foundation upon which all these outreach activities rest. Now in its 20th year of existence, the Day of Caring happens each April and typically involves representatives of most, if not all, of Iowa's sports programs who provide a wide variety of assistance to an equally wide variety of not-for-profit organizations that service the greater Iowa City community.

"Doing it Right" also encompasses efforts aimed at improving the student-athlete experience. The UI Athletics Department invested more than $1.7 million directly into food cost for its student-athletes in 2014-15 in response to NCAA legislation aimed at providing a higher quality student-athlete experience. In 2015-16, that commitment will continue and will be complemented by increases to the value of the scholarships awarded the UI's student-athletes as part of the NCAA's effort to fully address cost of attendance.

Providing the resources for the UI's student-athletes and coaches to be successful is a priority for Barta and his senior management team. That process includes state-of-the-art facilities, which is why Barta enters the 2015-16 year working closely with institutional leadership on the finalization of a comprehensive master plan for the facilities available to the Hawkeyes.

The plan will include a comprehensive review of the north grandstand of historic Kinnick Stadium; study of the feasibility of a student-athlete dormitory and dining facility of the west side of the UI campus; a comprehensive review of Carver-Hawkeye Arena including, specifically, the scoreboards and videowalls, the creation of a main entrance and "Wall of Honor" and other enhancements to the fan experience; Phase III of the revitalization of Duane Banks Field; a comprehensive review of Finkbine Golf Course and, specifically, the clubhouse; a comprehensive review of the Gerdin Athletics Learning Center; and, development of the "Hawkeye Campus" on the western edge of the UI campus, a project that could include new or renovated facilities for indoor and outdoor track and field, softball, volleyball, gymnastics, soccer, field hockey, and tennis.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City communities extends beyond his position as director of the UI's intercollegiate athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to the UI's president. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008 and will be directly involved in positioning the UI for growth in the immediate and long-term future as the institution responds to the expectations of the residents of the state, members of the state legislature, and the State of Iowa Board of Regents.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level as a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee and the College Football Playoff Advisory Committee. During his tenure at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Barta remains active on the conference and NCAA level. He is involved in committee work with NCAA Football, the Division IA Athletic Directors Association, and is an ongoing participant in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

Barta is also involved in a variety of community groups, including the United Way of Johnson and Washington Counties and the Partnership for Alcohol Safety, a joint effort between UI campus leaders and the city of Iowa City.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why the department has completed a comprehensive review and rewriting of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and continues to work with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different Wyoming coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state funds.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several Washington athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by Washington, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts. His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University, and director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa.

Barta earned a bachelor of science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from North Dakota State in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985, and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (17) and a daughter, Madison (15). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

In his first five years as the University of Iowa head men's basketball coach, Fran McCaffery has brought enthusiasm and excitement back to the Hawkeye basketball program. After 19 seasons as a head coach, he has coached his teams to seven NCAA tournaments and three NITs, posting a record of 347-252 (.579).

Since taking over the program in 2010, the Hawkeyes have vaulted back to national prominence. After an NIT runner-up finish and 25-win season in 2013, which matched the second-most victories by a Hawkeye team in program history, McCaffery coached the Hawkeyes to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2014 and 2015. McCaffery guided Iowa to first division finishes in the Big Ten each of the past three seasons, including a top three finish in 2015.

The past five years, McCaffery has coached seven Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Devyn Marble and Aaron White, who were selected by the Orlando Magic (2014) and Washington Wizards (2015) in the NBA Draft, respectively.

In addition to earning the program's best Big Ten finish in nine years, McCaffery guided Iowa to seven road wins, six of which came in league play. The seven true road victories were the most by a Hawkeye team since 1987. Last March, McCaffery and the Hawkeyes posted the largest margin of victory ever in an NCAA Tournament 7/10 match-up, beating 10th-seeded Davidson 83-52 in the second round. The 31-point win was the largest by any Hawkeye team in a postseason game.

The positive steps McCaffery has taken the Iowa men's basketball program in five seasons are par-for-the-course for a coach who has demonstrated his ability to rebuild programs. McCaffery coached Iowa to the 2014 and 2015 NCAA Tournaments, becoming one of just 12 Division I head coaches to take four different programs to the NCAA Tournament.

McCaffery and the Hawkeyes have made Carver-Hawkeye Arena one of the most feared arenas to play in nationally. Fans have embraced McCaffery and his team's style of play, with attendance increasing by more than 50 percent since 2010. Iowa sold out a combined 15 games the last two seasons, including 11 in 2014. The Hawkeyes continue to feed off the energy in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, winning 59 home games between 2011-15. The 59 victories are the most home wins over a four-year span in program history. Iowa won a school-record 18 home contests in 2013.

McCaffery has accumulated 15 upper division finishes in 19 seasons as a head coach, including each of the last three years. Overall, the Hawkeyes have amassed 85 victories the last four seasons (21.3 average), a total that ranks sixth most in program history over a four-year span.

Under McCaffery's direction, Iowa has won 20 or more games each of the last three seasons, the program's longest streak in 15 years. The Hawkeyes accumulated 25 victories in 2013, which equal the second-most win total in school history, 20 in 2014 and 22 in 2015.

McCaffery's up-tempo style of play is a favorite among his players. In 2014, Iowa averaged 81.5 points per game, a scoring output that was tops in the Big Ten and 10th nationally. The 81.5 average was the highest by an Iowa team since 1995 (83.6 ppg) and the second-highest by a Fran McCaffery-coached team (Lehigh's 1988 squad average 82.0 ppg).

McCaffery has posted nine seasons of 20 wins or more as a head coach, including seven in the last nine years. McCaffery, who won his 300th career game as a head coach on March 9, 2013, against Nebraska, has served as head coach at four institutions: Iowa, Siena, UNC-Greensboro and Lehigh. The four teams had a combined record of 35-84 (.204) the season prior to his arrival. By year three, they had a total record of 89-45 (.664).

McCaffery continues to create interest with recruits on a national level due to his tireless work ethic. McCaffery's is a proven recruiter, demonstrated by he and his staff signing the 25th-best recruiting class in the country prior to the 2012-13 season. His 2015 recruiting class includes talented players from across the country.

McCaffery has coached Iowa to 18 or more victories the last four seasons (2012-15). The last time an Iowa coach won 18-or-more games in four consecutive seasons was 1996-99 by Tom Davis. In 2012, McCaffery guided the Hawkeyes to 18 wins and an NIT bid. Iowa improved by seven wins from 2011 to 2012. Additionally, he led Iowa to four more Big Ten victories in 2012 than in 2011.

McCaffery continues to get the most of his talent, coaching Matt Gatens, Melsahn Basabe, Jarrod Uthoff, Marble, and White to All-Big Ten status the past five seasons. Marble (2014) and White (2015) became Iowa's first duo to earn first-team all-conference laurels in consecutive seasons since 2006-07. Additionally, Marble and White were both named NABC and USBWA all-district in 2014 and 2015, respectively. McCaffery also developed Gabriel Olaseni (2012-15) into the 2015 Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year.

The Philadelphia native, recruited and coached White to an illustrious Hawkeye career. White became the first Iowa player to score 1,800 points and collect 900 rebounds, while also leading the team in rebounding all four years. He finished his career ranked second in scoring (1,859) and third in rebounding (901). He made more free throws than any other Big Ten player the last 50 years, ranking third all-time in Big Ten annals with 618.

McCaffery, who has three decades of collegiate basketball coaching experience, was named the University of Iowa's 22nd head men's basketball coach on March 29, 2010. McCaffery, 56, came to Iowa after five successful seasons at Siena.

McCaffery's five years at Siena were the best in its 70-year history. He led the Saints on an incredible run that ended with three straight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. In so doing, Siena became the only program in the country to win its regular season and postseason title 2008-10.

McCaffery's Saints owned a 112-51 record in his five years with the program. After orchestrating the fifth greatest turnaround in Division I play his first year, McCaffery led Siena to a 20-win season and a MAAC Championship game appearance in his second. In 2007-08, Siena took its biggest step forward under his direction, earning the MAAC regular-season and tournament championship, as well as an NCAA Tournament first-round win over Vanderbilt. In 2008-09, the Siena program enjoyed unprecedented success. Siena won the regular-season title by equaling a program record with 27 wins before capturing the tournament crown. The Saints went on to defeat Ohio State in double overtime in one of the tournament's most exciting games.

In 2010, McCaffery led Siena to its fourth straight 20-win season, something never before achieved in program history. Siena ran away with the league title, clinching the No. 1 seed in the tournament and ultimately knocking off Fairfield in the MAAC title game.

The 2009 MAAC Coach of the Year is the third-winningest coach, by percentage, in league history (68-22, .756). He is the only coach to guide a MAAC program to two NCAA Tournament wins.

The 2008 season will also go down as one of the most memorable in Siena basketball history. McCaffery became just the 31st coach to take three different programs to the "Big Dance", and he was the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues (conference's that sent just one team the year his program advanced). Siena pounded Rider in the MAAC title game on its home floor to earn the MAAC's automatic bid. Less than two weeks later, McCaffery put together the perfect game plan and Siena led from start-to-finish in a triumph over Vanderbilt. Many considered the victory the greatest in school history, challenged at the time only by the program's 1989 upset of Stanford in the NCAA first round.

Siena won 20 games in McCaffery's second season (2007) and tied for third place in the MAAC with a 12-6 finish. McCaffery's Saints were the highest scoring team in the league, and they peaked at the right time, winning seven of their last eight regular-season games and advancing to play for the league championship.

McCaffery orchestrated the turnaround with stellar recruiting and bold vision. His first recruit - senior Kenny Hasbrouck - graduated as the most important player in program history. He was named MAAC Rookie of the Year as a freshman, MAAC second team and all-Tournament team as a sophomore, collegeinsider.com Mid Major Player of the Year, MAAC first team and MAAC Tournament MVP as a junior and MAAC Player of the Year, MAAC Tournament MVP, NABC All-District and MAAC first team as a senior.

His second class (first full class) is widely regarded as the best in program history. Edwin Ubiles, Alex Franklin and Ronald Moore finished their four-year careers with a 97-38 (.719) overall record, three MAAC Championships in four title game appearances, three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and two NCAA Tournament first round victories. Ubiles was a two-time MAAC first team, NABC All District first team and MAAC Tournament team selection and the 2007 MAAC co-Rookie of the Year. Alex Franklin, a two-time NABC All District selection, earned 2008 and 2009 MAAC second team and MAAC Tournament team honors. He won the 2010 MAAC Player of the Year award (Siena's second straight) and the 2010 MAAC Tournament MVP. Ronald Moore, the pulse of the team, earned 2009 MAAC second team and 2010 MAAC first team honors as well as a spot on the 2010 MAAC Tournament team. He became the MAAC's all-time assists leader in the 2010 MAAC Championship game.

In total, four Saints were named to either the first or second All-MAAC team in 2009, newcomer Kyle Downey was an All-Rookie selection and Clarence Jackson was named MAAC Sixth Man of the Year.

McCaffery was introduced as Siena's 14th head men's basketball coach on April 1, 2005. McCaffery has recruited and coached several players who have gone on to play basketball professionally, some at the highest level.

McCaffery took over at Siena from UNC-Greensboro, where he posted a 90-87 record in six seasons. In his first year at the helm, Greensboro compiled a 15-13 record overall and a 9-7 Southern Conference mark, good for third place in the North Division. It was the 18th-most improved record nationally among NCAA Division I teams.

In McCaffery's second season, he guided the Spartans to unprecedented heights with a 19-12 record and the 2001 SoCon Tournament Championship. The Spartans defeated Chattanooga, 67-66, in the finals and received the SoCon's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The following year (2001-02) McCaffery led the Spartans to their first 20-win season since joining the conference. It marked the first time the program claimed a share of the SoCon North Division title as well. After falling to eventual tournament champion Davidson in the conference tournament semifinals, the Spartans were awarded a berth into the 2002 NIT.

In his final year in Greensboro, McCaffery brought the Spartans to the brink of the NCAA Tournament before a SoCon Championship game loss to Chattanooga. He led UNCG to a victory over Davidson in the semifinals, defeating a team that had been 16-0 in conference play. A big part of that success was SoCon Freshman of the Year Kyle Hines. Hines set UNCG and SoCon records for blocked shots, and also broke several other UNCG single-game and freshman single-season marks.

McCaffery spent the 11 years prior to his arrival at Greensboro at Notre Dame as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator, working on the staffs of Richard "Digger" Phelps and John MacLeod.

Among the players he recruited to play for Notre Dame were Pat Garrity, CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year in 1998, and Troy Murphy, the Big East Player of the Year in 2000 and an eventual first-round NBA draft pick. Garrity was also a first-round NBA draft pick and the Big East Player of the Year in 1997. In addition to Murphy and Garrity, McCaffery was involved in recruiting NBA First Round picks LaPhonso Ellis (1992 Draft, #5 Denver), Monty Williams (1994 Draft, #24 New York) and Ryan Humphrey (2002 Draft, #19-Utah Jazz).

He helped the Irish to NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989 and 1990. Notre Dame reached the NIT finals in 1992, losing to Virginia in overtime, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the event in 1997.

At 26, McCaffery was the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was hired Sept. 11, 1985, at Lehigh. McCaffery capped his three-year tenure with the Engineers with a 21-win season and an NCAA berth in 1988.

In three seasons as head coach at Lehigh, he compiled a 49-39 overall record and guided the team to the NCAA Tournament in 1988. At the time he was the youngest head coach to reach the NCAA Tournament. His Lehigh teams had two winning seasons in three years and the 1987-88 squad's 21-10 record remains the best in program history. Lehigh had just four winning seasons in the 55 years prior to his arrival.

McCaffery was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Lehigh from 1983-85 and helped the team to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1985. As recruiting coordinator, he helped sign Darren Queenan, who remains Lehigh's all-time leading scorer. Queenan was second in the nation in scoring in 1988, and went on to play in the USBL.

McCaffery was assistant varsity coach and head sub-varsity coach at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, during the 1982-83 season. At Penn, he worked for Craig Littlepage, who is now the director of athletics at the University of Virginia.

McCaffery lettered three years as point guard on the men's basketball team at Pennsylvania as one of the first transfers to play for the Quakers. He earned a bachelor of science degree from The Wharton School of Finance and Commerce in 1982. In 1985 he received his master's degree in education from Lehigh.

In three seasons as a player he helped lead Penn to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances and Ivy League titles and one berth in the NIT. As a senior in 1981-82 he led the Ivy League in steals and assists and was voted the team's Most Inspirational Player.

Recruited as the successor at point guard to Skip Brown at Wake Forest, McCaffery played one season at Wake Forest, 1977-78, helping the Demon Deacons to a 19-10 record. Nicknamed "White Magic," he started 11 of 28 games as coach Carl Tacy's team finished runner-up in the ACC Tournament to eventual NCAA runner-up Duke. Wake defeated North Carolina twice in three meetings and won five of the eight games it played at the Greensboro Coliseum.

The McCaffery's have been a champion for Coaches vs. Cancer and American Cancer Society's Relay For Life. For 15 years, the McCaffery's have been actively involved with the Coaches vs. Cancer program and have raised significant funds to support the American Cancer Society's (ACS) efforts, including more than $1.3 million since becoming Iowa's head coach in 2010. His efforts were honored during the 2015 Final Four weekend in Indianapolis, as McCaffery was honored with the Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award. The distinction is awarded annually to a college coach who has been engaged vigorously in the Coaches vs. Cancer program's fundraising, education and promotional initiatives and has demonstrated leadership in the fight to save more lives from cancer. The ACS will award the McCaffery's with the Fighting Spirit Award on Sept. 30, 2015, in Troy, New York.

In addition to their work with the American Cancer Society and Coaches vs. Cancer, the McCaffery's are in the process of helping with the launch of a new Adolescents and Young Adult Cancer Center in Iowa City.

McCaffery, a Philadelphia native who attended LaSalle High School, and his wife Margaret have four children: sons, Connor, Patrick and Jonathan and a daughter, Marit.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT FRAN MCCAFFERY

"We are thrilled to have Fran McCaffery lead our men's basketball program. From the first day I met Coach McCaffery he said, 'I want to be the coach at Iowa.' He is a proven winner, a leader, has competed for championships and will continue to do so. Coach McCaffery is committed to student-athletes, their personal lives, and their education. Every one of his student-athletes who has completed their eligibility has graduated."

Gary Barta

Director of Athletics

University of Iowa

"Fran McCaffery adds a different flavor and is good for the Big Ten. This is going to be a very attractive program for highly skilled players. He comes in with a system that advocates putting the biscuit in the basket, putting points on the board. That's going to be fun. There's no doubt in my mind that when Fran gets this thing going, Iowa City is going to be on fire. He's going to get players, not just because of his system but because he can coach. They're going to score in the 90s, or the high 80s."

Gus Johnson

College Basketball Analyst

"Coach McCaffery did one of the best coaching jobs in the Big Ten this season (2011)."

Wayne Larrivee

College Basketball Announcer, BTN

"I'm a big fan of Fran McCaffery. He does things the right way."

Eric Collins, BTN broadcaster

"I love the direction Fran McCaffery is taking this program."

Tim McCormick, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"Fran McCaffery has done an outstanding job rebuilding this program."

Andy Katz, ESPN.com Senior College Basketball Writer

"If Iowa's rationale was hiring a quality person who recruits quality people, who doesn't cheat, does it the right way and is into developing young men while recognizing that he wants to have a winning team on the floor... then Fran is the perfect guy for the job."

LaPhonso Ellis, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"When a parent passes their kid over to Fran they can rest assured a few things. One, he's going to make sure, to the best of his ability, that he gets a quality degree. Secondly, he is going to do his very best to develop that individual player within the team context. And finally, because of the vast resources of people that he knows outside of the game that he will do his very best, for those who aren't fortunate to play at the next level, to use his influence to make sure they get jobs and have an opportunity to have upward mobility. That's what makes him special."

LaPhonso Ellis, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"I was really impressed watching Iowa the other day. I thought they paid attention to (Fran McCaffery) and did what he wanted them to do."

Brent Musburger, ESPN Announcer

"I think Iowa made an outstanding choice. Fran McCaffery-coached teams are well coached and very well organized."

Ronnie Lester

UI All-American

"Fran McCaffery is a good solid hire for the University of Iowa. Iowa has been hoping for a winner and I believe one has arrived. He's won at Lehigh, UNC-Greensboro and Siena -- if you can win at those places, you can win anywhere. His teams are enjoyable to watch with their style of play; he lets his kids play free. If Iowa fans give Fran a little time, he'll get the Hawkeyes back to the NCAA Tournament on a yearly basis."

Doug Gottlieb, CBS Analyst

"Fran McCaffery is a fine basketball coach, and an even finer person. He can teach the game, identify and attract talent, and he is a man of great substance and integrity. Iowa made a great hire in McCaffery."

Jay Bilas, ESPN and CBS Analyst

"Fran McCaffery is a great hire for Iowa. He was a great assistant coach and did a great job in making Siena the Gonzaga of the east. He will bring back the traditions of Iowa basketball."

Digger Phelps

Former ESPN College Basketball Analyst

Former Head Coach, Notre Dame

"Iowa hired a class act. Respected by his coaching peers, Coach McCaffery is a proven winner who rebuilt the Siena Saints program in quick fashion by being a relentless recruiter who instilled an up tempo style that fans loved and players embraced. During the search process he expressed his vision for the future of the Hawkeye program, while understanding the proud tradition of University of Iowa Basketball."

Bobby Hansen

UI Final Four Member, 1980

World Champion, Chicago Bulls

Hawkeye Radio Network Analyst

"The number one thing about Fran, is that he has a great feel for the game, and, he understands players. He and I spent a lot of time in traversing the state of Iowa, trying to get Iowa kids to come to Notre Dame. Fran has a great knack for setting an offense and he is a great defensive coach. He has great relationships with his players. This is a great fit for Iowa and a great fit for Fran."

John MacLeod

Former Head Coach, Notre Dame

Former Head Coach, Golden State

"I have been impressed with Coach McCaffery's consistent success, most recently at Siena. His teams are well prepared and his development of players, particularly on the perimeter, should fit in well with the young roster in Iowa City."

Shon Morris, BTN Analyst

"You have to love what coach McCaffery has going at the University of Iowa. He's continues to create interest on a national level. They play a great style of basketball; they press, run and jump, fast break and shoot a lot of three's. High school guys always say that they want to go to a coach who is going to let them play... well, Fran McCaffery is that coach who let's his guys play."

FRAN MCCAFFERY COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

IOWA

- Coached Iowa to three consecutive 20-win seasons -- the program's longest streak in 15 seasons, including winning 25 games in 2013 to match the second most total in program history.
- Guided Iowa to four straight postseason tournaments (2 NCAA and 2 NIT), including advancing to the NCAA third round in 2015 and finishing runner-up in the 2013 NIT.
- Coached the Hawkeyes to three consecutive first-division finishes in the Big Ten, including a third place finish in 2015. Iowa's 12 conference wins are the most by a Hawkeye team since 1997.
- Had Iowa ranked in both the AP and Coaches polls 16 consecutive weeks in 2014, climbing as high as 10th in both polls on Jan. 13.
- Recruited and coached Aaron White and Roy Devyn Marble, first team All-Big Ten and NBA Draft selections in 2014 and 2015, respectively. McCaffery has coached five other Hawkeyes to professional contracts overseas.
- Signed the 25th-best recruiting class in the country prior to the 2012-13 season.
- Fans have embraced McCaffery and his team's style of play with attendance increasing by more than 50 percent since 2010. Iowa has ranked in the top-20 nationally in average attendance the last two seasons (2014 and 2015).
- Coached Iowa to a school-record 59 home victories over a four year span (2012-15).

SIENA

- McCaffery's five years at Siena (112-51) were the best in its 70-year storied history.
- McCaffery led the Saints to three straight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. In so doing, Siena became the only program in the country to win its regular season and postseason title the last three years.
- In 2010, McCaffery led Siena to its fourth straight 20-win season, something never before done in program history.
- McCaffery, the 2009 MAAC Coach of the Year, is the third winningest coach by percentage in league history (68-22, .756).
- McCaffery is the only coach to guide a MAAC program to two NCAA Tournament wins.
- In 2008, McCaffery became just the 31st coach (15th active) to take three different programs to the "Big Dance", and he is the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues (conference's that sent just one team the year his program advanced).
- McCaffery led Siena to a perfect 17-0 home record in each of his last two seasons.

UNC-GREENSBORO

- In the 2001-02 season, McCaffery led the Spartans to their first 20-win season since joining the Southern Conference.
- McCaffery coached the 2001-02 Spartans to a share of the Southern Conference North Division title for the first time in program history.
- McCaffery's UNCG squads own the two highest-scoring seasons in program history.
- McCaffery is the only coach in UNCG history to win 11 games at home in a single season.

LEHIGH

- At 26, McCaffery was the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was hired Sept. 11, 1985.
- McCaffery coached two winning seasons in three years (Lehigh had just four winning seasons in the 55 years prior to his arrival).
- McCaffery coached the 1987-88 Mountain Hawks to a 21-10 record, which remains the best in program history.
- McCaffery led Lehigh to the NCAA Tournament in 1988 and was the youngest head coach to do so at the time.
- McCaffery was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Lehigh from 1983-85 and helped the team to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1985.
- As assistant coach and recruiting coordinator, he helped sign Darren Queenan 1988, who remains Lehigh's all-time leading scorer.

Note: Number in parenthesis following opponent is national ranking

Kirk Speraw is in his sixth year as an assistant coach at Iowa. Speraw, who has over three decades of coaching experience, assists in all aspects of the program including recruiting, opponent scouting, practices, player development and game preparation.

Speraw has helped rejuvenate the Iowa basketball program since arriving at Iowa in 2010. Not only has the attendance at Carver-Hawkeye Arena increased by more than 50 percent, but Speraw has helped vault the program back to national prominence.

Iowa has won 20 or more games each of the last three seasons, its longest streak in 15 years. Additionally, Iowa has averaged 21 wins the last four seasons, with its 85 victories ranking sixth most over a four-year span in program history.

After a 25-win season, which matched the second-most victories by a Hawkeye team in program history, and NIT runner-up finish in 2013, Speraw helped coach the Hawkeyes to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2014 and 2015. Speraw has helped coach the Black and Gold to upper division finishes each of the past three seasons, including a top three finish in 2015. Last March, Speraw and the Hawkeyes posted the largest margin of victory in an NCAA Tournament 7/10 match-up, beating 10th-seeded Davidson 83-52 in the second round.

The past five years at Iowa, Speraw helped coach seven Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Devyn Marble and Aaron White, who were selected by the Orlando Magic (2014) and Washington Wizards (2015) in the NBA Draft, respectively.

Speraw has helped mentor four Hawkeyes to All-Big Ten status during his tenure, including Roy Devyn Marble (2014) and Aaron White (2015) to first team accolades. Also, Speraw helped develop Gabriel Olaseni, who was voted 2015 Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year and finished his collegiate career ranked fourth in blocked shots (141). He also helped coach three All-Big Ten Freshman performers (Eric May in 2010, Melsahn Basabe in 2011, and Aaron White in 2012).

Speraw, who is a Sioux City, Iowa, native was a two-time Hawkeye letterman (1978-79) who played for head coach Lute Olson. He was a member of the 1978-79 squad that won 20 contests and a Big Ten title. As a senior, he was named the team's most inspirational player.

As both an assistant and head coach, Speraw has mentored dozens of players who have played professionally, including Hawkeyes Ronnie Lester, Steve Krafscisin, Vince Brookins, Steve Waite, Kenny Arnold, Kevin Boyle, Mark Gannon and Bobby Hansen.

Speraw began his coaching career with the Hawkeyes, serving as a graduate assistant with Iowa's 1979-80 team that advanced to the Final Four. The Hawkeyes went 23-8 that season. Speraw then moved to Denver University, where he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for two years (1980-82).

Speraw joined the Hawkeyes after serving 17 years as head coach at the University of Central Florida (1993-2010). During his tenure, 18 of his players received all-league honors, including four first team honorees. Additionally, since the start of the 1993-94 season, 54 of Speraw's UCF student-athletes earned academic all-conference recognition.

His tenure included four NCAA Tournament berths (1994, '96, '04 and '05). In 2006-07, he was recognized as Conference USA Coach of the Year after guiding the Knights to 22 victories and a second place league finish. His most successful season at UCF was in 2003-04, when the Knights finished 25-6, received votes in the top 25 and won the Atlantic Sun championship, earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his head coaching job at UCF, he served as an assistant coach at the University of Florida for three seasons (1990-93) under Head Coach Lon Kruger. While on the Florida staff, the Gators participated in two NIT's, including advancing to the semifinals in 1992.

Prior to his three years in Gainesville, Speraw was the head coach at Pensacola Junior College (PJC) from 1987-90. At PJC, he led the Pirates to an 82-21 record and three consecutive Panhandle Conference titles. His 1989-90 team won 31 games and finished fifth nationally. The team's success that year earned Speraw national recognition. He was tabbed the NABC/Kodak National Junior College Coach of the Year, as well as the state's Coach of the Year.

Speraw also had a coaching stop at Florida Southern, serving as an assistant from 1982-87. The Moccasins posted a 100-46 record and made four appearances in the Division II NCAA Tournament, including a third-place finish in 1986.

Speraw and his wife, Tracy (an Iowa City native), have two sons, Drew and Dustin, and two daughters, Brooke and Bailey. Drew played for his dad at Central Florida for four years.

Sherman Dillard is in his sixth year with the University of Iowa men's basketball staff bringing a wealth of expertise on and off the court.

Dillard has helped rejuvenate the Iowa basketball program since arriving at Iowa in 2010. Not only has the attendance at Carver-Hawkeye Arena increased by more than 50 percent, but Dillard has helped vault the program back to national prominence.

Iowa has won 20 or more games each of the last three seasons, its longest streak in 15 years. Additionally, Iowa has averaged 21 wins the last four seasons, with its 85 victories ranking sixth most over a four-year span in program history.

After a 25-win season, which matched the second-most victories by a Hawkeye team in program history, and NIT runner-up finish in 2013, Dillard helped coach the Hawkeyes to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2014 and 2015. Dillard has helped coach the Black and Gold to upper division finishes each of the past three seasons, including a top three finish in 2015. Last March, Dillard and the Hawkeyes posted the largest margin of victory in an NCAA Tournament 7/10 match-up, beating 10th-seeded Davidson 83-52 in the second round.

The past five years at Iowa, Dillard helped coach seven Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Devyn Marble and Aaron White, who were selected by the Orlando Magic (2014) and Washington Wizards (2015) in the NBA Draft, respectively.

Dillard has helped mentor four Hawkeyes to All-Big Ten status during his tenure, including Roy Devyn Marble (2014) and Aaron White (2015) to first team accolades. Also, Dillard helped develop Gabriel Olaseni, who was voted 2015 Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year and finished his collegiate career ranked fourth in blocked shots (141). He also helped coach three All-Big Ten Freshman performers (Eric May in 2010, Melsahn Basabe in 2011, and Aaron White in 2012).

Dillard has nearly three decades of coaching experience, serving as a college assistant or head coach for 29 years. He spent his first 15 years as an assistant coach at three institutions. Dillard began his coaching career under Head Coach Lefty Driesell at Maryland, spending six seasons (1979-85). He helped coach the Terrapins to four 20-plus win seasons and six postseason appearances, including five NCAA Tournament berths. The 1980, 1984 and 1985 squads reached the Sweet 16, while the 1984 team won the ACC Tournament.

He then spent three years at California (1985-88) under Lou Campanelli, who was his collegiate coach at James Madison. The Bears posted two third-place Pac-10 finishes and two NIT appearances during his tenure in Berkeley. After three seasons at California, he returned to the ACC and Georgia Tech for six seasons (1988-94). While in Atlanta, he helped Head Coach Bobby Cremins lead the Yellow Jackets to six winning seasons and postseason appearances. Georgia Tech played in five NCAA Tournaments, including the Final Four in 1990 and Sweet 16 in 1992.

Dillard received his first head coaching opportunity at Indiana State of the Missouri Valley Conference (1994-97). During his three seasons in Terre Haute, the Sycamores improved each season and posted a 29-52 record. He then left Indiana State to return to his alma mater. He replaced Driesell, who served as head coach the previous nine seasons (1988-97). Dillard was the Dukes' head coach for seven years (1997-2004). He posted a 93-106 record, sharing a league title and recording three first-division finishes in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). During his tenure, he earned CAA Coach of the Year and NABC District Coach of the Year laurels. His 10-year head coaching record stands at 122-158.

Dillard, a three-time Academic All-American and four-time honorable mention All-American by the Associated Press, played guard at James Madison (1973-78). He led the Dukes in scoring in each of his four years (missed 1976-77 with an injury) and was the team's top rebounder as a freshman. Dillard is the second-leading scorer (2,065 points) in James Madison history, and his academic excellence merited him an NCAA post-graduate scholarship. After his collegiate career, he was drafted by the Indiana Pacers in the 1978 NBA Draft. Additionally, Dillard was honored as a CAA "Legend" in 2009.

Dillard worked as a basketball marketing representative for Nike for six years (2004-10). He served as Global Camp Director, responsible for administrative and operational facets of a series of highly acclaimed camps and academies sponsored by Nike. Those camps included the Nike All-America Camp and select skills academies hosted by NBA stars such as Kobe Bryant, Steve Nash, Vince Carter, Amaré Stoudemire and LeBron James (until January, 2009).

Dillard is a 1978 magna cum laude James Madison graduate earning a bachelor's degree in physical education and minor in business, and is a member of the school's sports hall of fame.

Dillard and his wife Dena have two sons, Ben (22) and Langston (20). His son Ben was a four-year letterwinner on the UALR basketball team (2011-15).

Andrew Francis is in his sixth year as an assistant coach with the Hawkeyes and eighth season on head coach Fran McCaffery's staff. He was the first hire for McCaffery at Iowa, joining the staff on April 8, 2010.

Francis has helped rejuvenate the Iowa basketball program since arriving at Iowa in 2010. Not only has the attendance at Carver-Hawkeye Arena increased by more than 50 percent, but Francis has helped vault the program back to national prominence.

Iowa has won 20 or more games each of the last three seasons, its longest streak in 15 years. Additionally, Iowa has averaged 21 wins the last four seasons, with its 85 victories ranking sixth most over a four-year span in program history.

After a 25-win season, which matched the second-most victories by a Hawkeye team in program history, and NIT runner-up finish in 2013, Francis helped coach the Hawkeyes to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2014 and 2015. Francis has helped coach the Black and Gold to upper division finishes each of the past three seasons, including a top three finish in 2015. Last March, Francis and the Hawkeyes posted the largest margin of victory in an NCAA Tournament 7/10 match-up, beating 10th-seeded Davidson 83-52 in the second round.

The past five years at Iowa, Francis helped coach seven Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Devyn Marble and Aaron White, who were selected by the Orlando Magic (2014) and Washington Wizards (2015) in the NBA Draft, respectively.

Francis has helped mentor four Hawkeyes to All-Big Ten status during his tenure, including Roy Devyn Marble (2014) and Aaron White (2015) to first team accolades. Working mainly with the front court players, Francis was instrumental in the development of Gabriel Olaseni, who was voted 2015 Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year and finished his collegiate career ranked fourth in blocked shots (141). He also helped coach three All-Big Ten Freshman performers (Eric May in 2010, Melsahn Basabe in 2011, and Aaron White in 2012). Francis served three years on McCaffery's staff as an assistant coach at Siena (2007-10). While on the Saints' coaching staff, he helped guide Siena to three straight conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths, and four consecutive 20-plus win seasons. Francis helped coach six all-conference student-athletes, two Player of the Year honorees and the league's Sixth Man of the Year.

He arrived at the Siena program after a two year stint at Villanova University, where he served as an administrative assistant/video coordinator on Jay Wright's staff.

While at Siena, Francis assisted in all aspects of the program, including: recruiting, player development and scouting.

A Brooklyn, New York, native, Francis joined the Wildcats' staff in August, 2005. He assisted the program in a variety of roles while directing the video operations of the basketball office.

Francis is a 1992 graduate of Brooklyn's Abraham Lincoln High School. He played basketball at Fulton Montgomery Community College in Johnstown, New York, before completing his college career under Coach Sidney Green at Long Island University-Southampton. Francis graduated in 1998 with a degree in marketing and management.

After a knee injury ended his professional playing career, Francis became a volunteer assistant coach at Concordia College. From 2003-05, he served as the head women's coach at Mt. St. Vincent College, compiling a 26-27 record. In addition, he served as a volunteer assistant coach for the Westchester Wildfire of the United States Basketball League.

Francis is married to Kim and has two stepdaughters, Chelsea and Raven.

Billy Taylor is in his third season as the program's director of basketball operations.

Taylor works closely with the basketball staff, helping coordinate travel and carry out the day-to-day activities of the UI basketball program.

The last two seasons, Taylor has been on the Hawkeye staff of back-to-back NCAA Tournament teams. This past season, Iowa advanced to the Round of 32 after posting its largest margin of victory ever in an NCAA Tournament game (31-point win over Davidson). The Hawkeyes have produced back-to-back first-team All-Big Ten honorees and NBA Draft selections (Roy Devyn Marble in 2014 and Aaron White in 2015) while on staff.

Taylor joined the Hawkeye staff after 15 years of collegiate coaching experience. He served the previous 11 years as a head coach, most recently the last six seasons at Ball State (2007-13). During his tenure, the Cardinals finished either first or second in the Mid-American Conference (MAC) West Division three times and advanced to the MAC Tournament semifinals twice. Taylor coached nine all-conference selections and also mentored a MAC All-Freshman Team member five straight seasons.

Prior to Ball State, Taylor spent five seasons as head coach at Lehigh (2002-07), where he was a two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year honoree. In his first season, Taylor was named Patriot League Coach of the Year after guiding the Mountain Hawks to the second-largest turnaround in the nation, improving on the previous year's record by 11 wins.

In 2003-04, Taylor led Lehigh to its first-ever Patriot League regular season and tournament championships, as well as a trip to the NCAA tournament. For his efforts, Taylor earned the league's Coach of the Year honor for the second time in as many seasons, becoming the first coach since Gonzaga's Mark Few to win conference coach of the year honors in each of his first two seasons as a head coach.

In 2005-06, Lehigh posted the third-most wins in school history with its 19-12 overall mark and a school-record 11 Patriot League wins.

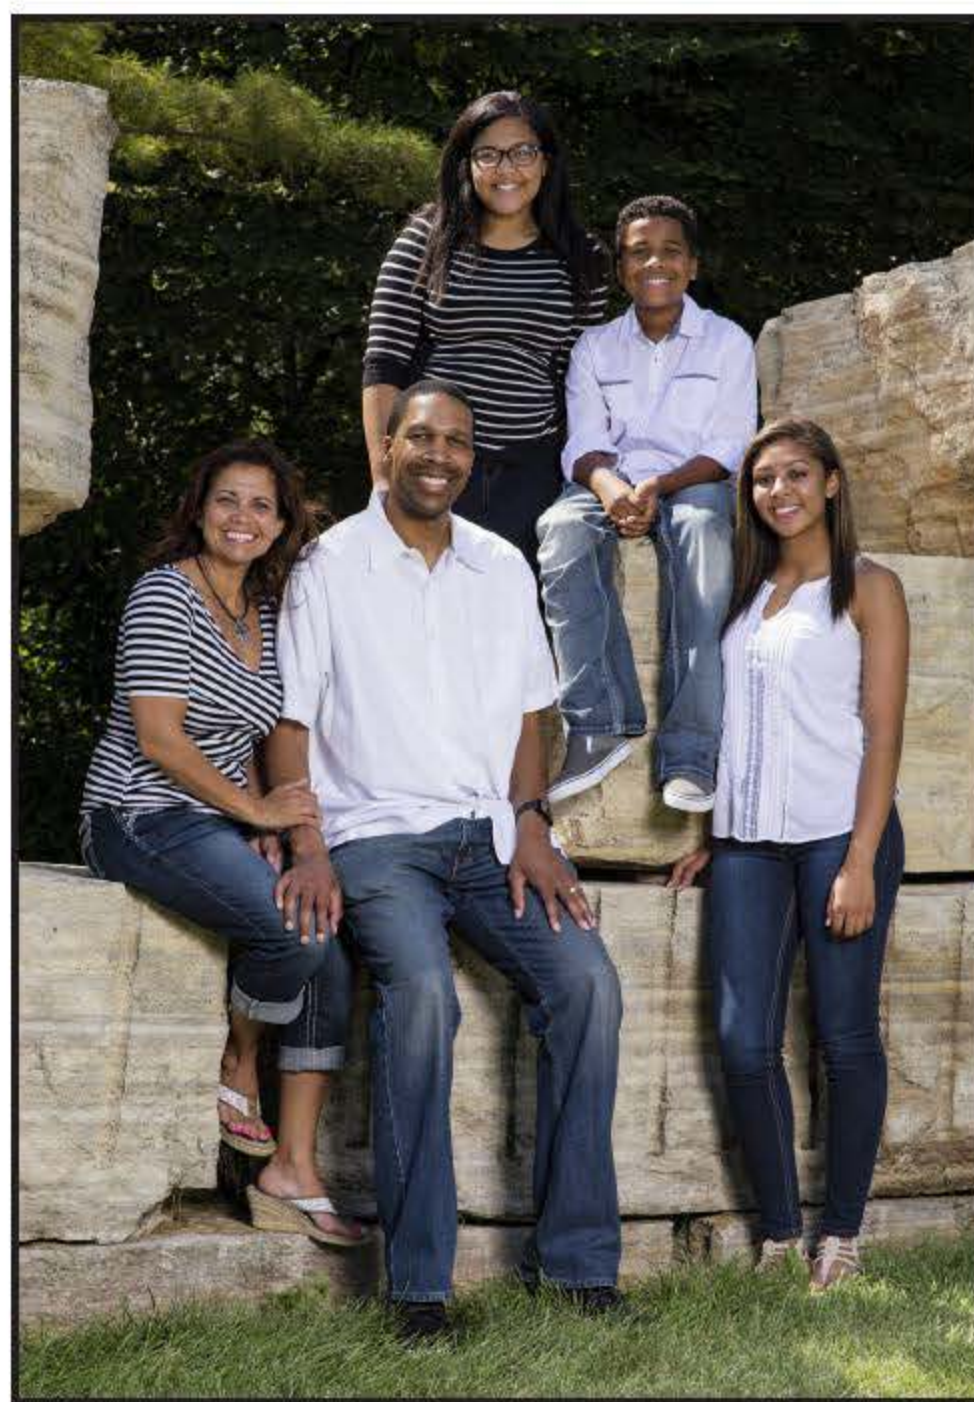

Before taking over at Lehigh, Taylor was the top assistant for three seasons at UNC-Greensboro under McCaffrey from 1999-02. The Spartans won the Southern Conference Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a 19-11 record in 2000-01, before posting a 20-10 mark and an NIT appearance in 2001-02.

Taylor served as an assistant coach at Notre Dame during the 1998-99 campaign alongside McCaffery and under head coach John MacLeod. He coordinated opponent scouting reports, game preparations, preseason and postseason skill development sessions.

Taylor, who was recruited to Notre Dame by Digger Phelps, was a four-year letterwinner for the Irish. He started 79-of-112 games during his career and was the team captain as a senior. He scored 577 points and grabbed 300 rebounds, before graduating with a degree in accounting and computer applications in 1995. He also earned his CPA in 1998.

Taylor and his wife, Avlon, have two daughters, Gavielle and Tamia, and a son, Savion.

VIDEO COORDINATOR
AL SEIBERT

Al Seibert is in his fifth season as the University of Iowa men's basketball team's video coordinator.

Seibert has assisted in the rise of the Hawkeye basketball program back to national prominence. The Hawkeyes have posted 20 wins or more and finished in the upper division of the Big Ten Conference each of the last three seasons, including a top three conference finish in 2015. After a runner-up finish in the 2013 NIT, Iowa has appeared in back-back-back NCAA Tournaments in 2014 and 2015, including registering its first NCAA Tournament victory since 2001 this past season. Two Hawkeyes have been selected in the NBA Draft (Devyn Marble in 2014 and Aaron White in 2015) while on Iowa's staff.

Seibert has 18 years of coaching experience, having most recently served as the head coach at the University of New Haven in West Haven, Connecticut, from 2005-10.

He was at the University of Hartford for five seasons, four as an assistant (2000-04) and one as associate head coach (2004-05). Seibert was the top assistant in 2002 when Hartford posted the second-best Division I turnaround. He also helped coach the Hawks to a top three finish in the America East Conference from 2002-04.

Seibert was also an assistant coach at Western Kentucky (1994-98). He helped coach the 1995 Western Kentucky team to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, a final national ranking of No. 18 and a 27-4 overall record, which was second only to national champion UCLA.

Other stops include one season as a volunteer assistant coach at Duquesne (1992-93) and working as a basketball administrative assistant at Pittsburgh (1993-94).

Seibert has worked individually with a number of athletes drafted in the NBA. In 1993, he worked with Derrick Alston (Duquesne University), who was a second round draft pick of the Philadelphia 76ers. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT/
ASST. VIDEO COORDINATOR
KYLE DENNING

Kyle Denning, is in his first season on the Iowa basketball staff as an assistant video coordinator and administrative assistant.

Denning is a recent University of Iowa graduate and former Hawkeye basketball student-athlete (2011-15), playing on four postseason teams, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament teams in 2014 and 2015, and NIT runner-ups in 2013.

The native of Cedar Falls, Iowa, was a walk-on for the first three seasons before earning an athletic scholarship his senior season. Denning played in 35 games at point guard, shooting at a 50 percent clip during his career.

Denning ran the team's scout team for four seasons and earned the team's Appreciation Award in 2015.

Denning graduated in May, 2015 with a degree in leisure studies.

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER
BRAD FLOY

Floy is in his fourth season as the athletic trainer with Iowa men's basketball and golf teams.

Prior to being named to this position, Floy served as Assistant Athletic Trainer and Lecturer in the Department of Kinesiology at Fresno State from 2008-12. He was responsible for the care and prevention of injuries as they related to the Bulldog men's basketball and tennis programs.

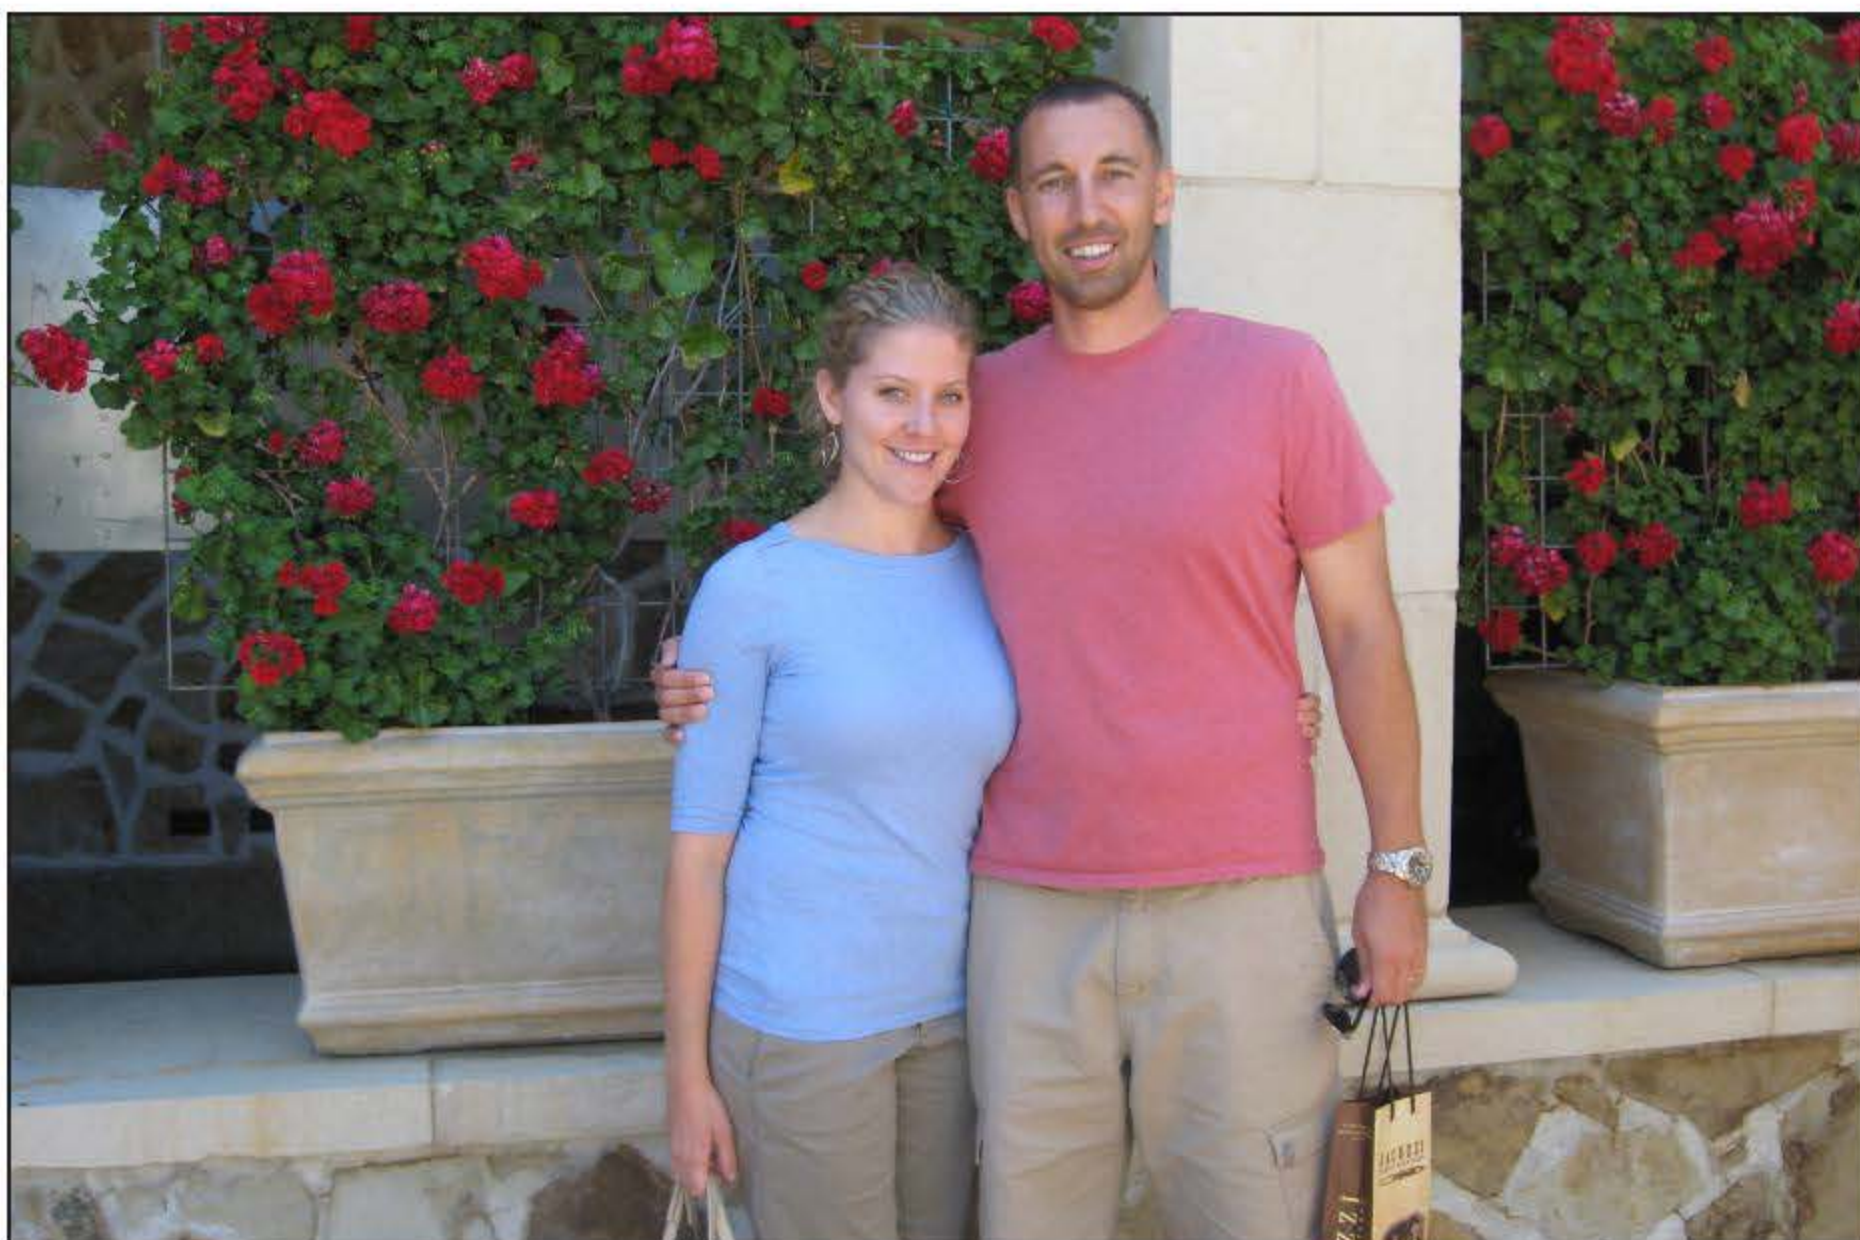

A native of Clear Lake, Iowa, Floy spent six years as a graduate assistant with the Hawkeye men's basketball team from 2002-2008 while earning B.S. (2002), M.S. (2004), and Ph.D. (2012) degrees in exercise science. During Floy's tenure at Fresno State, he worked with several future NBA players, including the No. 10 overall pick,

Paul George, of the Indiana Pacers. For the 2011-12 season, Floy was named Team MVP as the Bulldogs finished the season without any missed games due to injuries. While at Iowa, Floy has helped guide the Hawkeyes to four NCAA tournament appearances, including the last two seasons in 2014 and 2015, as well as the 2006 Big Ten Tournament championship and 2013 NIT runner-up.

Floy was named the 2014 Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Iowa Athletic Trainers' Society (IATS). He currently serves as IATS Secretary after chairing the Public Relations Committee for two years. He is a member of NATA, CATS, and MAATA. He holds certifications in Graston Technique, FMS-II, CPR/AED Instructor, and Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist.

The 35-year-old Floy is married to Erin, who works as a physical therapist in Iowa City.

Serving the needs of Iowa basketball and all the Hawkeye teams since 1975, the UI Sports Medicine team helps athletes and active people of all ages and skill levels heal from injuries and train for better performance, as well as oversee their regular health care needs. Linking experts from across the University, including specialists in orthopaedics, primary care, athletic training, rehabilitation, UI Sports Medicine provides the full spectrum of care for everyone from the active child to the veteran weekend warrior, from the beginner to the professional athlete. UI Sports medicine is located in a clinic that opened in 2010 near the University of Iowa Athletics Hall of Fame and the west athletics campus. UI Sports Medicine consolidates the expertise offered by different specialties and brings them at one convenient location.

Backed by the Department of Orthopaedics and Rehabilitation, which is ranked among US News World Report magazine's top orthopaedic departments in the United States, the UI Sports Medicine team is dedicated to improving the understanding, prevention, treatment, and rehabilitation of patients with sports- and activity-related injuries. Orthopaedic surgeon Brian Wolf, M.D., director of UI Sports Medicine Center and of Student Health Athletic Services, notes the sports medicine team's overall success depends on the following principles:

- Ensuring the best possible overall long-term health of athletes
- Injury prevention
- Efficient personalized treatment and rehabilitation following injury
- Clear communication between the physician, athlete, training staff, parents, and coaches to ensure the best possible recovery with minimal delay

Here is a closer look at the members of Hawkeye men's basketball's health care team:

HAWKEYES BEAT DAVIDSON IN NCAA TOURNAMENT

- Iowa won its first NCAA Tournament game since 2001 with an 83-52 win over Davidson in Seattle. The 31-point margin of victory is its biggest in program history in an NCAA Tournament game, surpassing Iowa's 29-point margin over Penn State in its first-ever NCAA Tournament game in 1955 (82-53). It also marked the largest margin of victory in NCAA Tournament history in a 7/10 matchup.
- Aaron White (26), Mike Gesell (15), and Peter Jok (12) outscored the entire Davidson team by one (53-52).
- Aaron White poured in a game-high 26 points (11-of-14 FG and 3-of-3 FT), including a personal 13-2 run over Davidson in the second half. The 26 points are the most by a Hawkeye in an NCAA Tournament game since Dean Oliver had 26 in a loss to Kentucky in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.
- Peter Jok's 12 points mark the second straight NCAA Tournament game that he registered double figures; he posted 10 against Tennessee in the first round in 2014.
- Iowa's 83 points are the most by an Iowa team in an NCAA Tournament game since Iowa tallied 98 in a 98-92 win over Texas in 1992.
- Iowa dominated the glass, grabbing 16 more boards than the Wildcats (46-30).
- Junior Mike Gesell dished out a game-high six assists, which are the most by a Hawkeye in an NCAA Tournament game since Dean Oliver had six against UAB in 1999.
- Iowa shot 50.7 percent (35-of-69) from the field, marking the first time Iowa shot 50 percent or better from the field since its win at Nebraska on Feb. 22 (50 percent).
- Iowa committed only five turnovers, which are the second fewest by an Iowa team in an NCAA Tournament game (three versus Virginia in 1997).
- Iowa improved to 4-0 all-time in games played on March 20.

GONZAGA SHOOTS DOWN HAWKEYES IN NCAA TOURNAMENT

- Gonzaga shot a blistering 61.5 percent from the field, including 62.5 percent from 3-point range in an 87-68 victory over Iowa in the NCAA Tournament third round played in Seattle.
- Senior Aaron White finished with 19 points and a game-high three steals. The 19 points ended White's streak of six straight games of reaching the 20-point plateau.
- Junior Jarrod Uthoff led the team with 20 points and eight rebounds.
- Junior guard Anthony Clemmons netted 10 points, equaling a career high with three 3-pointers.
- Junior Mike Gesell contributed nine points and dished out a game-high five assists.
- Gonzaga outscored Iowa 30-15 via the 3-point field goal and 13-7 at the foul line.
- Iowa dropped to 2-2 all-time on games played on March 22.

IOWA HISTORY

Iowa has played 2,674 games since beginning basketball in 1902. Iowa's overall record is 1,572-1,102 (.588). That includes a 1,003-353 (.740) record in home games, a 565-746 (.431) record in contests away from Iowa City, a 741-751 (.497) mark in Big Ten games and a 407-127 (.762) record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

3 HAWKEYES EARN POSTSEASON BIG TEN HONORS

Seniors Aaron White and Gabriel Olaseni, and juniors Jarrod Uthoff and Mike Gesell, earned postseason accolades. After earning third-team All-Big Ten honors a year ago, White became the 25th Hawkeye in program history to be named to the first team (media and coaches). With Devyn Marble earning first team laurels a year ago, this marks the first time since 2007 Iowa players made the All-Big Ten first team in back-to-back years.

Uthoff was named to the third team by the coaches and was honorable mention by the media. It marked the fourth straight season, Iowa had a player named to the third team. Olaseni was named the conference's Sixth Man of the Year, becoming just the second Hawkeye to earn that distinction. Gesell was named the team's Big Ten Sportsmanship honoree.

WHITE NAMED TO USWBA, NABC DISTRICT TEAM

Aaron White was named to the 10-player All-District VI team by the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and also the NABC All-District team. The native of Strongsville, Ohio, becomes the second Hawkeye in as many years to garner all-district accolades (Roy Devyn Marble in 2014). District six includes players from the state of Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

White (6-foot-9, 220 pounds) started all 34 games, leading the team in scoring (16.4 ppg) and rebounding (7.3 rpg). He helped the Hawkeyes win 12 conference games for the first time in 18 years. He was also instrumental in leading Iowa to seven true road victories -- the most by a Hawkeye team since 1987.

IMPROVED DEFENSE

After allowing 70.3 points a year ago, the Iowa defense has improved this season, allowing eight fewer points per game (62.3). The +8.0 improvement ranks in the top 20 among the seven major conferences. Also, opponents shot .415 from the field last season compared to .396 in 2014-15.

The last time Iowa allowed 62.3 points or fewer was 2009 (62.3).

STEALS MAKING A DIFFERENCE

In Iowa's 22 wins, the Hawkeyes averaged 7.7 steals per game, compared to four in their 12 defeats. The +3.7 steals per game difference in wins versus losses was second largest in the country behind Minnesota (+5.7).

FINDING WAYS TO SCORE

Aaron White ranked second in the country in highest percentage of points scored from free throws (minimum 500 total points) behind Maryland's Melo Trimble (36.4 percent). The Hawkeye senior scored 195 of his 558 points (34.9 percent) from the charity stripe.

On Jan. 5 against Nebraska, White surpassed Roy Marble as Iowa's all-time leader in free throws. He finished his illustrious career third on the Big Ten's free throws made chart. No other player made more free throws than White the last 50 years.

White attempted 10+ free throws 12 times in 2014-15, including 27 times in his career. Only four active players in the nation have accomplished that feat more than White.

White made 195 free throws this season, which are the most by any Iowa senior in program history.

SELECT COMPANY

Aaron White was the only Division I player this past season to have the following career numbers: 1,800+ points, 900+ rebounds, 175+ assists, and 125+ steals. He is the only Hawkeye ever to post those numbers in the program's history.

Also, his 16 career double-doubles ranked second among Big Ten players in 2014-15; Michigan State's Branden Dawson ranked first with 18.

STREAKING

Iowa lost its first round game of the Big Ten Tournament to Penn State, but finished the regular season winning its last six games. It marked the first time since 1987 that a Hawkeye team won six consecutive Big Ten games. It also marked the first time since 1955 that the Hawkeyes won their final six contests of the regular season. Iowa's 1955 squad, which advanced to the Final Four, won its final 14 games of the regular season.

Iowa won its final three road games of the season (Nebraska, Penn State, and Indiana). The last a Hawkeye team won its final three regular season road games was 1984 (Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Northwestern).

Iowa has won 20-or more games for three straight seasons. The Hawkeyes won 21 regular season games, which is the highest regular season total for Iowa under Fran McCaffery and the most since 2006 (22).

WHITE JOINS ELITE LIST

Aaron White finished his Hawkeye career with 1,859 points and 901 rebounds. The Hawkeye senior is one of only 10 players in conference history to amass more than 1,850 points and 900 rebounds.

Big Ten players with 1,850+ points and 900+ rebounds

RUT	Phil Sellers (2,399 points and 1,111 rebounds)
MSU	Greg Kelser (2,014 points and 1,092 rebounds)

ON POINT

Mike Gesell joins Dean Oliver and Jeff Horner as the only Iowa players in the program's history to amass 800+ points, 350+ assists, 200+ rebounds, and 100+ steals his freshman through junior seasons.

His 135 assists in 2014-15 rank as the sixth most by an Iowa junior in program history. His 4.0 assists average this season was ninth best among Big Ten players.

Gesell scored 15 points and dished six assists in Iowa's win over Davidson. He scored in double figures for the 10th time in 2014-15 and had five or more assists for the 12th time after being credited with five assists against Gonzaga. His six assists versus Davidson are the most for an Iowa player in the NCAA Tournament since Dean Oliver had six in a win over UAB in 1999.

HAWKEYE FAST BREAKS

- Iowa posted five top-50 wins and nine total victories over top-100 teams in 2014-15.
- Iowa was 17-1 this season when scoring 70+ points and 19-2 when shooting at a higher percentage than its opponents.
- Iowa averaged a double-double out of its center position of Adam Woodbury and Gabriel Olaseni. The duo combine to average 14.6 points and 10 rebounds.
- The Hawkeyes were 10-2 when Gabriel Olaseni scores in double figures this season.
- Iowa was the first team in the country to post road wins over two ranked opponents: No. 12 North Carolina (60-55) on Dec. 3 and No. 18 Ohio State (71-65) on Dec. 30.
- The Hawkeyes won seven true road games. The last time Iowa won seven true road games was during the 1986-87 campaign.
- Iowa was one of only two teams to record a win at Ohio State this season (Wisconsin).
- Junior guard Anthony Clemmons made 17 of his last 19 (.895) free throw attempts combined the last eight games.
- Iowa had fewer than 10 turnovers in 11 games this year. Iowa had a season-low four turnovers at Northwestern (Feb. 15). Iowa's five turnover versus Davidson are the second lowest for the Hawkeyes in a NCAA Tournament game (since turnovers were first kept in 1979). Iowa had three turnovers in a 1997 tournament win over Virginia.
- Aaron White became just the third Hawkeye to register 21+ points and 14+ rebounds in a Big Ten road game (at Penn State on Feb. 28) since 1996-97 (Jared Reiner at Indiana in 2003 and Greg Brunner at Indiana in 2004).
- Mike Gesell's five assists against Gonzaga moved the point guard into a tie with Kenny Arnold (1979-82) for eighth place in career assists (352).
- All five starters reached double figures at Michigan for the first time in a conference game since Feb. 7, 2004 (vs. Indiana).
- Aaron White's 29 points on Feb. 25, are the most by an Iowa player vs. Illinois since James Moses had 30 in 1991. Also, White became just the second player since 1997 to register 29+ points and 9+ rebounds against Illinois (Ohio State's Evan Turner in 2010).
- Iowa's 18-point win against Michigan in Ann Arbor is its largest since winning by 18 on Feb. 8, 1954.
- Iowa's 34-point win over Rutgers is the largest by a Big Ten team in league play this year and the biggest by an Iowa team in conference play since a 91-57 win over Northwestern in 1998.

- Adam Woodbury collected six assists to go along with his 11 points at Michigan. Woodbury became just the third Big Ten 7-footer to post 10+ points and 6+ assists in a game since 1996-97.
- Gabriel Olaseni scored 18 points in consecutive games against Nebraska (Jan. 5) and Michigan State (Jan. 8). The London native became just the fifth Big Ten player since 2006 to record back-to-back 18-point games off the bench (Indiana's Will Sheehey in 2012; Michigan's DeShawn Sims in 2008; Minnesota's Lawrence McKenzie in 2007; and Ohio State's Deaquan Cook in 2006).
- Iowa had four players post two or more double-doubles in 2014-15 (Adam Woodbury, Jarrod Uthoff, Gabriel Olaseni, and Aaron White). Iowa and Michigan State were the only Big Ten schools to have four players with multiple double-doubles in 2014-15.
- Iowa is 39-6 when scoring 80 points or more, the last five seasons. The Hawkeyes are 55-2 when holding opponents to fewer than 61 points, the last five years.
- Aaron White was named to the 2K Classic All-Tournament team, averaging a double-double in the two games played in New York City against Texas and Syracuse (14 points and 10 rebounds).
- Adam Woodbury was named Big Ten Player of the Week by the website College Sports Madness on Feb. 9 after helping lead Iowa to wins at Michigan and at home against Maryland.

STEADY IMPROVEMENT...

Since Fran McCaffery was named head coach at Iowa in 2010, he has guided the Hawkeyes to improvement each season.

WHITE HOT

Aaron White's play this season garnered the Hawkeye senior first-team All-Big Ten, and USWBA, NABC and Basketball Times All-District honors. The last nine games, White averaged 21.4 points and 8.3 rebounds. During the nine-game stretch, he shot 56.3 percent (63-of-112) from the field, 60 percent (12-of-20) from 3-point range, and 85.9 percent (55-of-64) from the foul line. His average of 21.4 since Feb. 16, was tops in the Big Ten.

White led Iowa to a win over Davidson in the NCAA Tournament second round, scoring 26 points (11-of-14 field goals), including a stretch of 13 straight in the second half. He added six rebounds, two assists, one steal and a blocked shot. White is the second Iowa player ever to have 26+ points, 5+ rebounds, 1+ assists, one steal, and one block in an NCAA Tournament game (Roy Marble in 1987).

White ranks second in Iowa history with 1,859 points, third with 901 rebounds, and is first with 140 games played. He is the only Hawkeye and one of only 10 Big Ten players ever to amass 1,850+ points and 900+ rebounds.

White ranked first on the team in rebounding (7.4), steals (1.3), and scoring (16.4), and fifth in assists (1.4) in 2014-15. White was the only player in the country to average 16+ points and 7+ rebounds, with a 50+ field goal percentage and 80+ free throw percentage. His rebounding and scoring averages ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, in the Big Ten in 2014-15. White became only the second Hawkeye since 1985 to lead the team in scoring, rebounding, and steals in the same season (Greg Stokes in 1985).

White was the only player in the nation to shoot better than 55 percent from the field and 80 percent from the foul line in 2014. He shot 58 percent from the field and 81 percent from the charity stripe. Again during his senior season, White was the only player in the nation to shoot better than 50 percent from the field (52.1 percent) and 80 percent from the charity stripe (81.9 percent).

White became the fifth player, since 1960, to lead the Hawkeyes in rebounding three consecutive seasons. White joins Don Nelson (1960-62); Kevin Kunnert (1971-73); Bruce King (1975-77); and Greg Brunner (2004-06). He became the first player all-time to lead the Hawkeyes in rebounding all four seasons.

In Iowa's 12 conference wins, White averaged 19.4 points per game, compared to 8.8 in the six defeats (White saw limited action in loss at Purdue due to injury).

OLASENI NAMED BIG TEN SIXTH MAN OF THE YEAR

Senior Gabriel Olaseni became just the second Hawkeye to be recognized as the Big Ten's Sixth Man of the Year. Iowa's Doug Thomas earned the distinction in 2006.

Olaseni ranked third on the Hawkeyes in scoring (8.1), second in blocked shots (54) and free throw shooting (90-of-120), and fourth in rebounding (4.8).

Olaseni denied four or more shots five times this season, including five shots twice (Northern Illinois and Penn State). His 54 blocks are the third most by a Hawkeye senior in program history.

Among the Big Ten reserves this year, he ranked first in blocks (54), and second in rebounding (4.8) and scoring (8.1).

UTHOFF, GESELL EARN ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

Juniors Mike Gesell and Jarrod Uthoff were named Capital One Academic All-District first team honorees for their combined performance athletically and in the classroom. Gesell was also tabbed third team Academic All-America, becoming the first Hawkeye to accomplish the national distinction since Adam Haluska (first team) in 2007.

Gesell, a native of South Sioux City, Nebraska, is a finance major maintaining a 3.93 grade point average. He led the team in assists (135) and ranked sixth in the Big Ten in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.2). Gesell averaged 7.4 points per game. Last fall, Gesell earned invitation to Beta Gamma Sigma, the National Scholastic Honor Society for business students at the University of Iowa who have garnered GPA's that place them in the top 10 percent of their class.

Uthoff, a native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is an economics major with a 3.34 GPA. Uthoff ranked second in team scoring (12.4), rebounding (6.4) and steals (38), and was first in blocked shots (56) and 3-point shooting (54-of-145, .372). He was the only Division I player with 50+ 3-pointers, 55+ blocks, and 35+ steals. He was named the Big Ten Player of the Week on Jan. 6, following his performances in Iowa wins over No. 18 Ohio State and Nebraska.

The Iowa women's basketball team also had two players recognized (Sam Logic and Ally Disterhoft).

Along with Gesell, Disterhoft and Logic were named Academic All-America. The University of Iowa was the only Division I school in the country to have a combined three men's and women's basketball players earn the national distinction.

FRESH START

Sophomore Peter Jok made his first start of his career on Dec. 22 versus North Florida. The native of West Des Moines, Iowa, started 21 of the last 22 games (senior Josh Oglesby got the start on March 7 for "Senior Day").

Jok averaged seven points per game in 2014-15, which ranked fifth on the squad. He made at least one triple in 18 of the last 25 games, including multiple 3-pointers in seven of the last 13 contests. He scored 12 points in Iowa's win over Davidson, while grabbing five rebounds. Jok reached double figure scoring in two of three NCAA Tournament games played (Tennessee in 2014 and Davidson in 2015).

UTHOFF PRODUCING ON THE WING

Jarrold Uthoff, who was named third team All-Big Ten, ranked second in team scoring (12.4 ppg), and steals (1.1), and first in 3-point shooting (54-of-145, .372). He was the only Division I player to have 50+ 3-pointers, 55+ blocks and 35+ steals. Additionally, Uthoff was one of only two Big Ten players to average 12+ points, 6+ rebounds, and 1.5+ blocks (Wisconsin's Frank Kaminsky).

Uthoff made 38 of his team-leading 54 3-pointers in Iowa's 22 victories. He averaged a team-best 15 points per game, shooting 45.5 percent (48-of-99) from the field and 100 percent (19-of-19) from the foul line, in Iowa's nine conference road games, while averaging 11.6 points, shooting 42 percent (38-of-91) from the field, in its nine league home contests.

His 56 blocks and 54 triples rank fourth and fifth best, respectively, by an Iowa junior in program history.

The redshirt junior poured in a game and career-high 25 points in Iowa's overtime loss at Northwestern (Feb. 15). His career-high fifth 3-pointer came with four seconds remaining in regulation to even the score and send the game to overtime.

The Cedar Rapids, Iowa, native was named Big Ten Player of the Week on Jan. 6 by the Big Ten Conference after his performances in Iowa's win at No. 18 Ohio State (Dec. 30) and vs. Nebraska (Jan. 5). Uthoff averaged 16.5 points, seven rebounds, and 3.5 blocks in those two games.

Uthoff drained four triples in Iowa's victory over Hampton (Nov. 14) and at No. 18 Ohio State (Dec. 30). He has reached double figures 23 times this season. He averaged 14.5 points per contest over the last 11 games of the season.

Uthoff tallied eight points and equaled career bests in rebounding (11) and blocked shots (five) in Iowa's win at No. 12 North Carolina. He had 22 points, five rebounds, four assists, and four blocks at Minnesota on Jan. 13. Uthoff became the first player to amass 22+ points, 5+ rebounds, 4+ assists, and 4+ blocks in a Big Ten contest since Minnesota's Joel Przybilla versus Iowa on Jan. 12, 2000.

Uthoff had two double-doubles in 2014-15 (North Florida and Michigan State). He had 10 points and a personal-best 12 boards against North Florida (Dec. 22), and 12 points and a team-best 10 rebounds versus Michigan State (Jan. 8).

IOWA VS. RANKED TEAMS

The Hawkeyes were 4-6 against opponents ranked in either the Associated Press or USA Today Coaches polls in 2014-15.

Iowa won at No. 12 North Carolina (60-55) on Dec. 3, at No. 18 Ohio State (71-65) on Dec. 30 and completing the season sweep against the 25th-ranked Buckeyes (76-67) in Iowa City on Jan. 17, and beat No. 16 Maryland (72-55) in Iowa City on Feb. 8. The Hawkeyes fell to No. 10 Texas (71-57) and No. 23 Syracuse (66-63) in New York City, at home to No. 13 Iowa State (90-75), twice to No. 5 Wisconsin (82-50 on Jan. 20 and 74-63 on Jan. 31), and in Seattle to No. 7 Gonzaga (87-68) on March 22.

MCCAFFERY HONORED WITH CHAMPION AWARD

Fran McCaffery was honored with the Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award during Final Four Weekend in Indianapolis.

The honor is awarded annually to a college coach who has been engaged vigorously in the Coaches vs. Cancer program's fundraising, education and promotional initiatives and has demonstrated leadership in the fight to save more lives from cancer.

Working as a team with wife Margaret McCaffery, Coach McCaffery turned their family struggle into an open and ardent fight. When their 13-year old son Patrick was diagnosed with a cancerous tumor during the 2014 NCAA tournament, the McCaffery's shared their grief, fear and struggle with the team, their fans, and the world at large. They directed contributions to the American Cancer Society and Coaches vs Cancer, and many fundraisers started spontaneously, including T-shirts sales with #teampat to fund cancer research.

For 15 years, the McCaffery's have been involved actively with the Coaches vs. Cancer program and have raised significant funds to support the American Cancer Society's efforts, including more than $1.3 million since 2010. Coach McCaffery's work has been instrumental in promoting cancer awareness throughout Iowa and the surrounding region.

"The American Cancer Society, in conjunction with the NABC, is pleased to recognize Coach Fran McCaffery and his wife Margaret for their outstanding work with Coaches vs. Cancer," said Dr. John Seffrin, American Cancer Society's Chief Executive Officer. "Together they pose a formidable force in the fight against cancer and we are grateful for their ongoing commitment to the Society's lifesaving work."

The Champion Award was instituted in 1996, with former Missouri coach Norm Stewart receiving the inaugural citation. Since that time, the award has honored head coaches Jim Boeheim (Syracuse); Denny Crum (Louisville); Roy Williams (then at Kansas and now at North Carolina); Riley Wallace (Hawaii); Fran Dunphy (then at Pennsylvania and now at Temple); Gary Williams (Maryland); Mark Few (Gonzaga); Mike Brey (Notre Dame); Bruce Weber (then at Illinois, now at Kansas State); Jim Calhoun (Connecticut); Tom Izzo (Michigan State); Oliver Purnell (DePaul); Paul Hewitt (the at Georgia Tech and now at George Mason); Lon Kruger (Oklahoma); Bo Ryan (Wisconsin); Steve Lavin (St. John's University) and now McCaffery.

1922-23 (13-2 OVERALL, 11-1 BIG TEN)

The 1922-23 team won the school's first-ever Big Ten title, with 11 victories in 12 league contests. A 23-21 loss at Indiana in the regular-season finale allowed Wisconsin (whom the Hawkeyes did not play) to tie for the title. Hector Janse became the first Hawkeye sophomore to make the All-Western Conference team.

Iowa's 1969-70 team ran its way to a perfect 14-0 league mark and set many scoring records. The 1969-70 Hawkeyes, who won 17 of their last 18 games, are still the highest scoring team in Big Ten history (102.9 points per game).

1969-70 (20-5 OVERALL, 14-0 BIG TEN)

The Iowa "Six Pack" ran its way to a perfect 14-0 league mark and set many scoring records. The 1969-70 Hawkeyes, who won 17 of their last 18 games, are still the highest scoring team in Big Ten history (102.9 points per game). Iowa scored eclipsed the century mark 12 times. Four players averaged over 17 points, led by John Johnson (27.6).

2005-06 (25-9, 11-5 BIG TEN)

Iowa's senior dominated team posted a 17-0 record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena and won the 2006 Big Ten Conference Tournament in Indianapolis. The 25 wins marked the second-highest number in school history as the Hawkeyes posted a sixth consecutive winning season under Coach Steve Alford. The Hawkeyes tied for second during the regular season, one game behind Ohio State, before defeating the Buckeyes in the title game of the post-season tournament. Senior guard Jeff Horner was named MVP of the Big Ten Tournament, while senior forward Greg Brunner was named to the all-tournament team.

On Sept. 11, 2015, former Iowa men's basketball coach George Raveling was one of 11 notable men and women inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts.

Raveling is the current Director of International Basketball for Nike and a former men's college basketball coach. While at Iowa (1983-86), Raveling guided the Hawkeyes to back-to-back 20-win seasons and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances.

Raveling is not only known for making history by breaking down racial barriers as a coach, but also was a part of history when in 1963 he received the original copy of the Martin Luther King Jr., "I Have a Dream" speech.

"It's been a magical ride, and to have this bestowed upon me at 78 years old is an incredible experience. It's humbling and it's certainly appreciated," said Raveling.

The year 2012 was a memorable one for former Hawkeye Don Nelson. First, the Rock Island, Illinois, native returned to Iowa City in mid-May after 50 years to receive his University of Iowa diploma. Four months later, Nelson was honored with the highest basketball honor that can be bestowed upon an individual... enshrinement into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Nelson is the all-time winningest coach in NBA history with over 1,300 victories and is one of only two coaches to be named NBA Coach of the Year three times (1983, 1985, 1992). He spent over 40 years of his life as a player, coach and general manager. He led teams to 18 playoff appearances where he amassed 75 playoff wins and is one of only two NBA coaches to win 250 games with three different teams. He also coached Dream Team II to a gold medal in the 1994 World Championships. Nelson, who was named in 1996 as one the NBA's 10 Best Coaches of all time, is the only coach with 1,000+ wins and multiple NBA championships as a player, where he won five titles with the Boston Celtics (1966, 1968, 1969, 1974 and 1976).

As a Hawkeye, Nelson led the Hawkeyes to 45 victories between 1959-62. He left Iowa after the 1962 season with 1,522 points, averaging 21.2 points per game in 72 career games, which currently ranks fourth best for scoring average in the Iowa record books.

RETIRED NUMBERS & JERSEY

10 B.J. ARMSTRONG (JERSEY)

B.J. Armstrong's jersey was retired in 1992. Graduated as Iowa's career assist leader (currently fourth), B.J. ranks fifth in career scoring and was a two-time Hawkeye MVP. A first round draft choice of the Chicago Bulls in 1989, B.J. played a vital role in Chicago's NBA titles in 1991 and 1992. Armstrong moved into Chicago's starting line-up in 1993 as the Bulls won their third straight NBA title. Armstrong concluded his NBA career with Chicago in 1999-00.

12 RONNIE LESTER

Ronnie is Iowa's seventh all-time leading scorer with 1,675 points. Lester started 3 1/2 seasons before a knee injury shortened his senior season. He was the Hawkeyes' MVP three times, an All-Big Ten selection twice and an All-American in 1979-1980. He played in the NBA for Chicago and Los Angeles. Ronnie won a World Championship with the Los Angeles Lakers in 1985 and served as vice-president of the Laker organization.

21 CARL CAIN

Carl was a 1956 first team All-American and All-Big Ten for the Hawkeyes' national runners-up. A 1956 Olympian, Cain was forced into a reserve role for the United States because of a back injury. Carl was a two-time Iowa MVP and finished his career with 1,054 points.

22 BILL SEABERG

Bill was a starting guard on the "Fabulous Five" team that ended up as the NCAA runner-up in 1956. He was third team All-America by Helms and the Hawkeyes' MVP in 1955, when he averaged 13 points.

31 BILL LOGAN

Bill, a member of the Hawkeyes' 1,000-point Club, topped the squad in scoring three times. A two-time All-Big Ten selection, Logan was second team All-America in 1956 according to Helms and Converse-Taylor. Bill helped Iowa to a second place Big Ten finish as a sophomore and consecutive Final Four appearances his last two seasons.

33 BILL SCHOOF

Bill played forward on the "Fabulous Five" team and scored 6.3 points per game. A three-year letterman, Schoof was a starter on Iowa's 1955 and 1956 Final Four teams. In those two seasons he helped the Hawkeyes to a record of 39-13.

40 CHRIS STREET

Chris Street's number was retired following his untimely death in 1993. Street died in an auto accident 15 games into his junior season. A fixture in Iowa's starting line-up since midway through his freshman season, Street was averaging 14.5 points and 9.5 rebounds per contest through 15 games and had recently earned MVP honors at the San Juan Shootout. Chris established an Iowa record by making 34 consecutive free throws.

41 GREG STOKES

Greg, a three-year starter in the pivot, is the school's third all-time career scorer (1,768 points). Greg owns the school record for field goal percentage in a game (1.000, 11 of 11). After an All-Big Ten senior season (19.9 scoring norm), Greg was selected in the 1985 NBA Draft by Philadelphia.

46 SHARM SCHEUERMAN

Sharm made his mark at Iowa as an athlete and coach. He started on the "Fabulous Five" basketball team and lettered three times in basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1956, Sharm returned to coach his alma mater in 1959. His 1961 squad finished 18-6.

THE NBA DRAFT

FIRST BASKETBALL GAME PLAYED IN IOWA CITY

Iowa City was the site of the first college basketball game played with five players on a side. The historic event took place in Close Hall on the University of Iowa campus on January 18, 1896.

In that first game, the University of Chicago defeated Iowa 15-12, with neither team using any substitutes.

The game was arranged by Iowa professor H.F. Kallenberg, who had earlier attended Springfield College, and wrote James Naismith for a copy of the rules of the game, and Amos Alonzo Stagg, a friend of Kallenberg who had become the athletic director at Chicago.

Iowa's Carver-Hawkeye Arena is located on the west campus in the University's athletic complex, approximately one-quarter mile northwest of Kinnick Stadium. It is a few minutes' drive from Interstate 80 and 380 and about 30 minutes from the Eastern Iowa Airport in Cedar Rapids.

The press and radio section at the Arena is located on the west side of the floor. The television and camera platform is located overhead on the east side.

A hospitality room for the media is located through the main exit ramp off the playing floor. Soft drinks are available to the media, along with concession stand food vouchers.

Postgame conferences with the head coaches are held in the Press Room. Iowa player interviews are conducted in the press room following the coach's interviews.

COACH MCCAFFERY CONFERENCES/INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Coach Fran McCaffery holds media conferences in Carver-Hawkeye Arena and tele-conferences throughout the season. Requested Iowa players are available on days Coach McCaffery meets with the media. Coach McCaffery also participates in the Big Ten coaches tele-conferences on Monday's during the conference season. All Iowa practice sessions are closed to the public and media.

All interview requests for members of the Iowa coaching staff and Hawkeye student-athletes should be directed through athletic communications (319) 335-9411. Please refrain from contacting members of the basketball program directly.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for game credentials should be directed in e-mail to Matt Weitzel (matthew-weitzel@uiowa.edu). Requests should be filed early enough to allow time for processing. Credentials that are not mailed can be claimed at the Will Call window at the Carver-Hawkeye Arena ticket office, located at the north entrance to the arena. Photo identification is required.

PARKING

Requests for parking should be made when requesting credentials. Media parking is located in lots 40 and 33 near the East side of Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

SERVICES

Complete play-by-play, halftime statistics, final individual and team statistics and quotes from both head coaches are available following each home game. Statistics will be either faxed or e-mailed when requested. This information is filed in PDF format and sent within 30 minutes following home games. Box scores are also posted on the Iowa website, hawkeyesports.com, following each Iowa game throughout the season. Postgame player interviews can also be found at facebook.com/hawkeyehoops.

HIGH SPEED INTERNET ACCESS

High speed internet access is available in the media area in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, as the majority of seats in the media area are hard-wired for access. Wireless internet is also available. Check with a member of the athletic communications staff for a username and password card that is good for the entire 2015-16 season.

IOWA ON THE INTERNET

Updated information on the Iowa basketball team and athletics department is also available on the University of Iowa's athletic department home page on the Internet. That address is:

THE HAWKEYE RADIO NETWORK

Fans of the University of Iowa following the Hawkeyes on radio can tune in on their favorite station throughout the state of Iowa and the Midwest.

The radio voice of the Hawkeyes is Gary Dolphin, a Cascade, Iowa, native who handles all play-by-play action of both Iowa men's basketball and football. In addition, Dolphin also serves as the host of the weekly radio and television coach's shows during the seasons with men's basketball Coach Fran McCaffery and football Coach Kirk Ferentz. Dolphin, in 2001 and 2011, was named the Iowa Sportscaster of the Year. He is in his 20th season of broadcasting Iowa basketball and football on the Hawkeye Radio Network. Dolphin, overall, is in his 43rd year of play-by-play broadcasting, which also includes six years of broadcasting basketball games for Northwestern University.

Dolphin is joined on all University of Iowa basketball broadcasts by former Hawkeye and NBA veteran Bobby Hansen. Hansen was a four-year letterman and a member of Iowa's 1980 Final Four team. Hansen enjoyed a lengthy career in the NBA and earned an NBA championship while playing for the Chicago Bulls.

The Hawkeye Radio Network, a production of Learfield Communications, Inc. of Jefferson City, Missouri, blankets the state of Iowa and bordering states with more than 50 stations providing live coverage. The Hawkeyes can also be heard online (hawkeyesports.com) and on Sirius/XM Satellite Radio.

The Athletic Communications Office is located in Suite S300 in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The office phone number is 319/335-9411 and the FAX number is 319/335-9417.

Roe was named Director of Athletic Communications in 2011, after serving as interim director for one year. He joined the Hawkeye staff in 1990 and was named associate director in 1997. The Iowa City native earned his bachelor's degree from Buena Vista University and his master's degree from Northeast Louisiana University. He is the author of "HAWKEYES FOR LIFE", published in 2007. Steve and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Nike, and a son, James, two granddaughters, Teagan (10) and Lydia (2), and a grandson, Jack (5). Both Nike (law degree) and James (bachelor's degree) earned degrees from the University of Iowa.

Wagner is in her 17th year as an assistant after previously serving as a student assistant for four years and as an intern for two years. A native of Iowa Falls, Wagner earned her bachelor's degree in 1997 with a double major in journalism and communication studies. Traci and her husband, Jason, have a son, Nick, and a daughter, Sydney.

Weitzel was named associate director in 2012, after serving as assistant director since 1998. Weitzel graduated from the University of Iowa in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communication, with an emphasis in business. The native of Mundelein, Illinois, was a student in the sports information office for three years.

Brewer is in his seventh year as an assistant director after previously serving as a student assistant for three years. In 2004, the Iowa City native earned his English degree from the University of Iowa and served as a graduate assistant with the Detroit Lions media relations department. He and his wife, Brooke, have a daughter, Elyse, and a son, Del.

Miller is in his ninth year as director of new media in the UI athletics department after spending nearly 20 years working in the newspaper and sports information professions. He is a 1984 graduate of Tipton (Iowa) High School and a 1988 graduate of Wartburg College, majoring in communication arts (journalism/public relations). Miller and his wife Ann have four children: Ashley, Melissa, Brittney and Kyle.

Allan is in his sixth year as a fulltime assistant at Iowa, joining the staff in 2010. It is Allan's second stint in the office, as he served as a student assistant from 2000-04. Allan returned to Iowa City after serving as the sports information director at the University of Missouri-Kansas City from 2005-10, and as the athletics media relations intern at Texas Christian University in 2004-05. The Hampton, Iowa, native earned his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Iowa in May, 2004. He and his wife, Mary Ann, have two sons, Jonathan and Will, and are expecting their third child in August.

Price is in her third year as assistant director, joining the Iowa program after serving as a graduate assistant in the athletics media services office at Western Illinois University for two years. She is a native of Huntertown, Indiana. Price earned a bachelor's degree in communication, with minors in journalism and public relations, from Indiana University-Purdue University, Fort Wayne (IPFW) in 2011. She earned her master's degree (science in sport management) from Western Illinois in 2013.

Britt became a fulltime member of the Iowa staff in July. She served as a student assistant in the Athletic Communications office during her four years as an undergraduate. Britt, a native of Plano, Illinois, earned her bachelor's degree from Iowa in journalism and sports studies in 2015.

Ray joined the UI athletics department in 2013, as the athletics department photographer. Ray previously was the Iowa City chief photographer and senior visual journalist for the Cedar Rapids Gazette and is a Davenport, Iowa native. Ray earned a bachelor's degree from Iowa in journalism and psychology in 2002. Brian and his wife, Joanna, have a son, Boston, and a daughter, Joslynn.

Head Coach

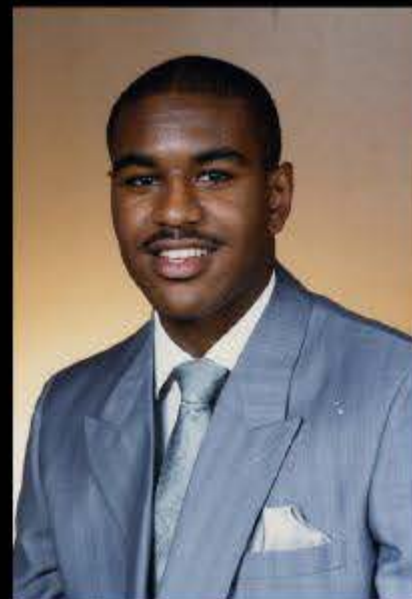

IOWA'S ALL-TIME SCORING LEADER, ROY MARBLE, PASSED AWAY ON SEPT. 11, 2015, AT THE AGE OF 48. MARBLE LED THE HAWKEYES TO FOUR STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES, INCLUDING ADVANCING TO THE ELITE EIGHT IN 1987 AND SWEET 16 IN 1988, AND LED THE TEAM IN SCORING THREE CONSECUTIVE SEASONS.

"ROY HAD A HUGE IMPACT ON IOWA BASKETBALL AND WAS ONE OF THE ELITE PLAYERS TO EVER WEAR A HAWKEYE UNIFORM. ROY WILL BE MISSED BY ALL OF US IN THE IOWA BASKETBALL FAMILY."
